Tanks Attack Rebel Area

U.S. Seen Urging Junta To Quit Dominican Posts

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—The United States was reported pressuring the Dominican junta to resign as junta tanks battled the rebels in northern Santo Domingo Sunday night.

Tank-led junta forces renewed their offensive against the rebels in a driving rain. The battle had raged through Saturday night, diminished around the noon Sunday, only to flare up again Sunday night.

Residents who fled the area north of the east-west supply corridor reported heavy military and civilian casualties.

U.S. troops were not involved in the action, but three U.S. paratroopers were wounded Saturday night during a heavy exchange of fire between rebels and the 82nd U.S. Airborne Brigade.

A U.S. spokesman said the firing across the Ozama River was the heaviest action recorded for a 24-hour period since U.S. forces arrived.

The American troops control the river's west bank and the rebels the east. The rebels have been using mortars and heavy-caliber weapons against the Americans.

A high-level White House mission which came from Washington Sunday met with junta president Brig. Gen. Antonio Imbert Barreras and reportedly pressured the junta to resign. Junta sources said Imbert refused.

Another meeting between Imbert and Undersecretary of State Thomas C. Mann was scheduled today.

Junta sources said the U.S. government was trying to get the junta to step aside so "that an understanding could be reached with rebel constitutionalist forces for a peaceful solution to the Dominican conflict.

The White House mission also includes McGeorge Bundy, special assistant to the President on national security affairs; Deputy Secretary of Defense Cyrus C. Vance, and Jack H. Vaughn, assistant secretary of state for Latin-American affairs.

Jose Antonio Mayobre of Venezuela, appointed by U.N. Secretary- General U Thant as his special representative to the Dominican Republic, arrives today. He is to report to the U.N. Security Council on the situation.

A team of U.N. observers toured the 20 blocks of the capital held by the rebels. They were greeted by shouts of "United Nations si, OAS, no," and "Out with the Yankees."

The renewal of fighting triggered a mass flight by civilians from the battle area. Groups of poorer families headed away from the city carrying their possessions.

Rebel and junta spokesmen made conflicting claims on the progress of the battle.

The junta's armed forces secretary, Gen. Francisco J. Rivera Caminero, said: "We are moving forward slowly but steadily." He claimed the rebels had lost two tanks Saturday.

Other junta spokesmen claimed progress in wiping out about 300 rebel fighters in the northern part of the city.

Rebel sources said their men drove the junta forces back three blocks. A spokesman said two truckloads of junta soldiers were captured and one tank disabled.

More Blasts Threaten Air Base In South Viet

Toll Hits 25 U.S. Dead, 74 Injured

Authorities Launch Probe Into Mishap Shattering Airfield

BIEN HOA, South Viet Nam (AP) — More explosions were feared today from bombs scattered about the Bien Hoa Air Base by the chain blasts that left 25 Americans dead or missing and 74 wounded.

One of the unstable, high-power bombs buried in the wreckage went off while U.S. and Vietnamese crews were cleaning up the area devastated by Sunday's blast. There were no new casualties, but officials feared other bombs might go off.

"We have evacuated all personnel from the area until our disposal experts decide what to do with the bombs," said Maj. Gen. Joseph H. Moore, commander of U.S. Air Force operations in Viet Nam and Thailand.

The explosions at the base 12 miles north of Saigon Sunday caused more death, injury and destruction to U.S. forces than any single Communist attack of the war.

Gen. Moore said after a preliminary investigation: "I am satisfied no sabotage was involved. It was an accidental explosion of a bomb on one aircraft which spread to the others."

U.S. officials said the disaster began with the explosion of a bomb that had been loaded aboard a B57 jet bomber for an attack against the Communist guerrillas.

Napalm bombs, white phosphorous fire bombs and 750-pound bombs all went up. Five minutes after the initial blast, the jet plane ramp was a mass of smouldering debris. Forty planes were destroyed or damaged, and the control tower was knocked out of operation for several hours.

Crated Stowaway Finds Self In Jam On Jet Jaunt

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Brian Robson, 19, is a homesick Welsh traveler who tried to express himself home from Australia in a crate aboard a jet airliner.

Robson, who said he was trying to get to Britain as cheaply as possible, shipped himself c.o.d., billed as a computer.

After 92 hours — the last 14 spent stalled on what seemed an interminable stopover — the youth decided to emerge from the box and see where he was.

"I wasn't too healthy," said Robson in the prison ward of County General Hospital, where Immigration Service authorities took him Sunday after smashing open the box in an airport warehouse.

He said three companions had nailed him into the crate in Melbourne and forwarded him to Sydney on an Ansett-Australian National Airlines plane. The crate measured 30 by 26 by 38 inches and was provided with special panels which were supposed to break when he hammered on them.

But they didn't. Instead, his hammer did, and he had to call for help. He got help, but now he wonders where it is going to get him.

He hopes authorities, now that he's been booked on federal charges as a stowaway and illegal entrant to the United States, will deport him home to Cardiff, South Wales. He left 10 months ago, with the Australian government paying his fare under a program to attract skilled settlers.

Robson, smiling and talking cheerfully, sipped at soup and milk attendants gave him to relieve his dehydrated condition.

"I was dead scared from the moment I started," he said. "But I just couldn't afford to get home any other way and I had to make it." He said his disappointment with his Australian railroad job and his home-sickness got the better of him.

His training as an apprentice electrician gave him the idea of labeling his crate "Ajax junior computer."

"But they sure didn't handle it like a computer," he said. "At one point they turned me upside down and left me that way for 22 hours. What a headache I had when they finally righted me."

The boy suffered a possible skull injury. He was in "poor" condition today at City Hospital.

The woman told patrolman Orin C. Smith she was driving west about 15 to 20 miles an hour when the boy suddenly dashed in front of her car.

A motorist who was traveling about 120 feet behind the woman driver said that she was not traveling fast.

The weather caused an auto accident that killed a 17-year-old Cincinnati youth, and three Cleveland area brothers were struck and injured by lightning, one critically.

Port Columbus Airport's weather bureau recorded the 67-mile-an - hour winds. Three private planes parked at the airport were damaged by the gusting winds.

Congress Given Tax Cut Request

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson formally submitted to Congress today his bid to cut excise taxes by nearly $4 billion, and gave assurances he sees no indication that spending for defense of the free world would upset the planned reduction.

Diplomat Asks Asylum

Polish Defector Quizzed By American Authorities

BERLIN (AP) — U.S. officials questioned the chief of Poland's military mission in West Berlin today after he defected and asked for political asylum in the United States.

A U.S. Air Force plane flew Wladislaw Tykocinski, about 44, to West Germany. U.S. officials said his request for asylum was being considered.

It was the first defection in years of a high-ranking Communist diplomat in West Berlin. Tykocinski had the rank of minister — corresponding to that of a major general — and was the senior foreign diplomat in West Berlin.

The Polish and Czechoslovak military missions were established in West Berlin after World War II and are accredited to the Western Allies. Their work now ostensibly is confined largely to consular matters, and most of the military members have been replaced by civilian diplomats. But Western intelligence authorities claim that they are important espionage centers.

A U.S. spokesman said American officials accompanied Tykocinski at his request to his residence in the U.S. sector of West Berlin for a talk with his wife.

"Mrs. Tykocinski did not choose to go with him and his 17-month-old child remains with the mother," the spokesman said.

Contacted by a newsman, Mrs. Tykocinski said: "Call the military mission if you want information."

Chester Area Tavern Hit In Trooper Raid

In a second weekend raid on a Chester area tavern, West Virginia State Police issued two citations Saturday night at the Holiday Lounge on Route 66.

Cpl. C. W. Tighe and Trooper Bill Stoffick entered the lounge about 10:10 armed with search and seizure warrants, and arrested John F. Ludovici, 43, of Chester, identified as the operator, on a charge of possession and sale of alcoholic liquor and possession of gaming devices.

The troopers confiscated a blackjack table, a poker table, and a dice table, along with numerous packs of playing cards.

Ludovici posted $197 bond for an appearance before Squire

Diplomat Asks Asylum

Polish Defector Quizzed By American Authorities

BERLIN (AP) — U.S. officials questioned the chief of Poland's military mission in West Berlin today after he defected and asked for political asylum in the United States.

A U.S. Air Force plane flew Wladislaw Tykocinski, about 44, to West Germany. U.S. officials said his request for asylum was being considered.

It was the first defection in years of a high-ranking Communist diplomat in West Berlin. Tykocinski had the rank of minister — corresponding to that of a major general — and was the senior foreign diplomat in West Berlin.

The Polish and Czechoslovak military missions were established in West Berlin after World War II and are accredited to the Western Allies. Their work now ostensibly is confined largely to consular matters, and most of the military members have been replaced by civilian diplomats. But Western intelligence authorities claim that they are important espionage centers.

A U.S. spokesman said American officials accompanied Tykocinski at his request to his residence in the U.S. sector of West Berlin for a talk with his wife.

"Mrs. Tykocinski did not choose to go with him and his 17-month-old child remains with the mother," the spokesman said.

Contacted by a newsman, Mrs. Tykocinski said: "Call the military mission if you want information."

Chester Area Tavern Hit In Trooper Raid

In a second weekend raid on a Chester area tavern, West Virginia State Police issued two citations Saturday night at the Holiday Lounge on Route 66.

Cpl. C. W. Tighe and Trooper Bill Stoffick entered the lounge about 10:10 armed with search and seizure warrants, and arrested John F. Ludovici, 43, of Chester, identified as the operator, on a charge of possession and sale of alcoholic liquor and possession of gaming devices.

The troopers confiscated a blackjack table, a poker table, and a dice table, along with numerous packs of playing cards.

Ludovici posted $197 bond for an appearance before Squire

Dr. Singer Warns Of Spring Hazards Facing Youngsters

LISBON — Dr. Merle Singer, county health commissioner, warned today that pleasant spring weather increases the chances of children being involved in accidents while at play.

Parents should warn their children against dangerous places and situations, taking time to discuss some of the hazards the youngsters will encounter in outdoor play, Dr. Singer said.

"A sudden spring-time impulse of your child may not lead to an accident, but it is advisable to caution children to think before they act," he said. "Children should be made safety conscious without becoming fearful of normal play activity."

He issued these tips on safe bicycling:

"Before children are allowed on the road, they should be required to learn the necessary safety rules. The parents should require a demonstration of all safe rules before the child is allowed to venture onto the road. Assist your child in learning these safety rules:

"Children should avoid busy streets and keep the bike under control at all times. Refrain from trick riding, ride on the right side close to curb and in the same direction as motor vehicle traffic. Ride in single file when riding with others, keep both hands on the handlebars, except to signal when turning or stopping.

"Ride alone — never double — as extra weight means less control of the bike. Obey all stop signs even if the road seems clear of traffic; stop and look both ways before entering a street from a sidewalk, alley or drive. Never hitch a ride from cars. Avoid night riding as much as possible, but if it's necessary to ride at night wear light clothing and use a reflective tape tail light.

"Never make sudden stops and be ready to brake when approaching an intersection or stop sign. Allow people on foot the right-of-way at intersections.

"Kite flying is a favorite spring activity, but it can be dangerous. Teach your child to fly his kite in an open area away from all electric lines and trees. A metal or wet string should never be used, since this kind of string conducts electricity.

"Watch out for traffic. If the kite gets away, let it go. Contact your local power company for help if the kite gets caught in electric lines. Your child risks his life trying to retrieve a kite from a tree or utility pole.

"Running from between parked cars causes many children to meet needless death. Playing on the street is probably the chief cause. Public playgrounds or backyards should be used whenever possible. If a ball accidentally goes into the street, look both ways before retrieving it.

"Teaching children how to live and play safely should have its beginning in the home. The basic foundation for safety education in the home should be all during the pre-school years."

Citations Given To 5 By Salineville Police

A city motorist was among five arrested over the weekend in Salineville for traffic violations.

John Robert Boswell, 214 W. Drury Ln., was cited Sunday for reckless operation. John Richard Moore, 105 E. Main St., Salineville, was cited yesterday for driving without an operator's permit. His driver's license had expired, police said.

Deborah S. Preston of Pittsburgh and Donald Richard Clark Jr. of Salineville R. D. 2 were cited Sunday for failing to observe the stop sign at the intersection of Routes 39 and 164. Lewis Anthony Fior of Urichsville was cited Saturday for a stop sign violation at the same intersection.

The arrests were made by Police Chief Ray Keister and Deputy Gordon Sweeney.

Lack Of Sign Frees Driver

Because no speed limit sign had been posted on the freeway stretch from Route 170 south to the city limits at the time he was cited, a Pennsylvania service station operator and used car salesman was ordered to pay only the costs today in Municipal Court on a speeding charge filed by the State Highway Patrol.

Joseph J. Stajnarjh of Carmichaels, Pa., was convicted by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, who listened to testimony from the defendant and from Cpl. K. L. Day, who had charged that the defendant drove 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on April 3.

The officer testified that he had clocked Stajnarjh for a mile at a speed of 70 miles an hour. He said the reason he pursued the defendant was that the auto Stajnarjh was towing was swaying slightly on the highway.

Questioned by the defendant, Cpl. Day admitted that the highway stretch had no speed limit sign.

Stajarjh said he had been driving since he was 17 and estimated his speed at only 55 to 60 miles an hour. However, the speedometer on his car was broken, he said.

In finding the defendant guilty, Judge Chertoff said he couldn't accept the estimated speed in view of the officer's testimony of 70 miles an hour and the inoperative speedometer on the defendant's car.

Paul Ayersman of New Castle forfeited a $17.50 bond on a charge of crashing a traffic signal at 3rd and Market Sts. at 3:04 a. m. Sunday.

Deborah S. Preston of Pittsburgh and Donald Richard Clark Jr. of Salineville R. D. 2 were cited Sunday for failing to observe the stop sign at the intersection of Routes 39 and 164. Lewis Anthony Fior of Urichsville was cited Saturday for a stop sign violation at the same intersection.

The arrests were made by Police Chief Ray Keister and Deputy Gordon Sweeney.

Lack Of Sign Frees Driver

Because no speed limit sign had been posted on the freeway stretch from Route 170 south to the city limits at the time he was cited, a Pennsylvania service station operator and used car salesman was ordered to pay only the costs today in Municipal Court on a speeding charge filed by the State Highway Patrol.

Joseph J. Stajnarjh of Carmichaels, Pa., was convicted by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, who listened to testimony from the defendant and from Cpl. K. L. Day, who had charged that the defendant drove 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on April 3.

The officer testified that he had clocked Stajnarjh for a mile at a speed of 70 miles an hour. He said the reason he pursued the defendant was that the auto Stajnarjh was towing was swaying slightly on the highway.

Questioned by the defendant, Cpl. Day admitted that the highway stretch had no speed limit sign.

Stajarjh said he had been driving since he was 17 and estimated his speed at only 55 to 60 miles an hour. However, the speedometer on his car was broken, he said.

In finding the defendant guilty, Judge Chertoff said he couldn't accept the estimated speed in view of the officer's testimony of 70 miles an hour and the inoperative speedometer on the defendant's car.

Paul Ayersman of New Castle forfeited a $17.50 bond on a charge of crashing a traffic signal at 3rd and Market Sts. at 3:04 a. m. Sunday.

A Boost For Area Recreation

The district's recreational program should be given a real shot in the arm with the announcement that the 1966 conference of the Pennsylvania Recreation and Park Society will be held in Beaver County.

Obtaining the meeting is quite a feather in the cap of the Beaver County Tourist Promotion Agency. It's a case where an aggressive campaign bore fruit and where the site committee of the society liked what it saw.

While the program is primarily Beaver's, neighboring areas have every right to be encouraged in their own efforts to expand recreation and park facilities. State lines mean little in this case, with the natural advantages of rivers, lakes and wooded tracts available to all, be it in Pennsylvania, Ohio or West Virginia.

Beaver County has performed a valuable service to the entire district by prevailing on the state group to conduct its 1966 session in its part of the Keystone State.

With increasing population, with the need for more relaxation in the demanding times of today and with physical fitness more and more in our minds, recreation programs, loom ever larger in the scheme of things.

'Tough And Rough'

Prosecutor Arch W. Riley has promised to "play tougher and rougher" in his efforts to wipe out gambling in the Wheeling area.

One can have only respect for such energetic and determined action — even though the "deck" appears to be stacked against those on the side of law and order in the Northern Panhandle.

If Mr. Riley can make the grade—and we hope he does—he'll be in a class all by himself. Others haven't experienced too much success.

In Hancock County, meanwhile, raids continue intermittently, arrests are made, gaming equipment seized and some fines levied. But it all adds up to little at this time, with the joints reopening almost as soon as the raiders have slammed the doors on their way out.

Reasonableness In All Things

A special advisory committee has grappled gingerly with the honor code problem at the Air Force Academy and reached a gingerly decision.

The academy's honor code should be retained as is. Most of the cadets think so, says the committee in support of its decision.

But not all the arbitrary rulings and procedures that had become commonplace under the "toleration" section of the code should be retained, advises the commission. This section pledges cadets not to tolerate other cadets who "lie, steal, or cheat."

This was where trouble began, according to the behind-the-scenes reports that came out of the Air Force Academy after 109 cadets had resigned. The reports made clear that the honor code had been twisted into a monstrosity that made it a code violation for a cadet not to squeal on another cadet who had failed to shine his shoes or perform minor housekeeping chores. The code had been turned into an absurdity by picayune minds.

The other two military academies at West Point and Annapolis also have honor codes. But by tradition and consensus, Army cadets and midshipmen are not required to tattle on their own associates.

It was recalled in connection with the career of Gen. Douglas MacArthur that he, personally, had helped to shape the West Point tradition when he was a cadet, by refusing to inform against his own classmates.

The advisory commission that studied the problem at the Air Force Academy has emerged with a workable formula: Honor in all things — plus reasonableness.

It is not and never was reasonable to require a school boy to tattle on his classmates. In the academic environment, tattling itself is a violation of honor.

To The Queens

A salute to all the "queens" who have been reigning at the various proms and other functions which crowd the social calendar at this time of the year.

It must be quite a thrill to be chosen and to become the object of "ohs" and "ahs" amid the colorful settings provided for such "royalty."

Years from now the memories will become even more precious as scrapbooks are dusted off and the pages of days that used to be are thumbed.

What's With These Joes?

W. Averell Harriman, undersecretary of state for foreign affairs, is the latest government apologist to have been ambushed in the "Halls of Ivy."

Attempting to explain U.S. policy in Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic to students at Cornell University, Harriman was subjected to heckling, boos and hisses. Because of the unruly "audience," a scheduled question-and-answer session never came off.

At other institutions of higher learning, a State Department team has encountered much the same treatment. The students come not to hear and debate but to jeer and bait.

This is the fruit of these students' exposure to mankind's accumulated store of wisdom? This is responsible citizenship? This will clarify issues for those who are genuinely concerned and uncertain about the trend of world affairs?

It's all too reminiscent of the methods the Bolsheviks and Nazis used to shout down parliamentary opposition in the days when they were maneuvering for power.

Letter From Max

By Martin Miller

Dear Truman Twill:

Another way for former residents to rub natives such as you and me the wrong way is to come back to visit the old hometown and deplore and deplore and deplore the aged old place.

If you know the former residents well enough, you can always say, "And you don't look any younger, either. What happened to your hair and where did you get that midsection spread?" But half the time you don't know them that well and have to take their guff.

Another means of vengeance is to visit them in their new location and drop snide comments about its shortcomings.

What gives rise to this is that a couple of old-timers recently visited our city and moaned about the changes, all of which may not have been for the better. But the least the old-timers could have done was to be diplomatic.

WHEN THEY pulled up stakes and went on to supposedly greener pastures, they had lived for three or four decades right here, and it seemed to be good enough for them then. In fact, they were jealous of the city's good name then and willing to fight if anyone cast a slur on it.

Then, just because they have lived someplace else, God knows where, for a few years they think they can come back and act condescending to us poor benighted souls who stayed on to fight the good fight on the home battleground.

Such impertinence!

A city is a city and a home is a home.

The most generous thing that can be said about such carpers is that they feel a subconscious guilt for having been happy for so many years in their old surroundings. Ignorance was bliss.

FOR INSTANCE, one guy had the gall to say the old youth center where he spent some of the most joyous hours of his childhood did not look as good as he remembered it.

He acknowledged that the exterior of the building had not been altered, but said it just did not look as pleasant to him as he remembered it.

Obviously, this is more a reflection on the critic than on what he is criticizing.

Here the town has been jazzed up with features which have attracted favorable attention and these itinerant grouches claim that it has gone down hill since they left. Talk about egocentrics.

It is reminiscent of the elders whose digestive juices are running dry and who have incipient ulcers, yet bemoan the lack of cooking like mother used to do.

OVER A period of years, a person comes to feel comfortable in his locale. It ill becomes any emigrant to denounce the place of his birth.

All this reminds me that a while ago I went back to the place where I used to live and could hardly find it because of gas stations, hamburger joints, dry cleaning establishments and various other shops—and all of these half hidden by the glare of a multitude of neon lights.

It didn't look like my old home. I won't say it was bad, but it sure was different.

Faithfully yours,
MAX

Odd Facts

America's history is closely tied to that of the state of Virginia, particularly in the colonial period. Jamestown, founded in 1607, was the first permanent English settlement in North America and slavery was introduced there in 1619. The surrenders ending both the American Revolution and the Civil War occurred in Virginia. And the state is called the "Mother of Presidents" because eight chief executives of the U.S. were born there.

Some of our present-day standards of measurement were originally based on the length of arms, feet and legs of the human body. Our measure of a foot, which is 12 inches in length, at one time literally meant the length of a person's foot. And the measurement of a yard originally was based on the distance from the nose to the end of the thumb of Henry I of England.

Probably the largest crossword puzzle ever composed was one that was published in the "Sunday Observer" in London on Dec. 25, 1960. Thin crossword included 2,304 squares, with numbers ranging from 1 to 360 across and 1 to 351 down.

Sound Of Music

Businessmen Await Records Ruling

By Victor Riesel

Ironically, a drive to unionize an underwear manufacturer's Southern plant may yet disrupt President Johnson's skillfully private campaign to convince businessmen he is as much their friend as labor's.

Victor Riesel

Outside of the White House few are aware that the President has spent considerable time talking to industrialists in small groups. Sometime there have been as few as two or three men whom he believed to be opinion makers in the business world. Often he has talked to Vice President Hubert Humphrey about the problem.

In the last few weeks he has dispatched personal and confidential letters to those he believes are knowledgeable, asking them what they think of the course of his administration —and requesting suggestions.

It develops now that the businessmen are sensitive over many labor-relations matters—but are most sensitive over the attitude of the National Labor Relations Board.

THIS FIVE-MAN group, under the chairmanship of Frank McCulloch, a former colleague of Sen. Paul Douglas, does actually have the power to decide how a business shall function in many areas.

Businessmen view the board's decisions as a reflection of the administration's basic attitude towards them. And though the public is not aware of the latest development, the newest conversation piece inside much of the business community is a board hearing scheduled for May 20 in Washington.

It revolves around a demand by a union that an employer give it the full list of his employes' names and addresses. Then the union could propagandize them in advance of a plant election in which they would vote to choose to join or not to join organized labor.

Because there have been similar demands by other unions on other companies, the NLRB has put them all into one common hearing.

INVOLVED are the Excelsior Underwear, Inc., and Saluda Knitting, Inc., of Saluda, S.C., and one West Coast company. The Southern drive is being pushed by the Men's Clothing Union.

In each instance, the regional NLRB director adopted the established board rule that an employer is not required to hand over to a union the names and addresses of his employes. But the unions have gone over the have appealed to the national panel, which has the final say.

The business world is agitated by these cases because it expects the usually pro-labor board to reverse the regional rulings. Businessmen are disturbed because they traditionally regard the names and home addresses of their employes as privileged and confidential.

No prudent employer, one business organization spokesman said, would provide such a list to any soliciting organization, "be it commercial, charitable or fraternal."

FURTHERMORE, it was said such a decision by the board at this time would top what the business world calls a series of body blows. The board already has ruled that an employer has no right to contract out part of his business; or to automate; or even to go out of business.

The board also has ruled that a minority union can picket an employer indefinitely even when another union has been chosen by the workers there. This picketing was approved, though it could continue until the company's business is ruined, as long as the union does not claim to represent the employes inside.

The union, though a stranger to the workers, is permitted to picket on the theory that to prevent the picketing would be to impair its right of free speech.

ONE HIGHLY placed business spokesman said bitterly during a recent discussion that the board even has ruled that it's unlawful for an employer to discharge a worker who referred to the boss in the colloquialism which translates into the posterier of an equine.

Now the businessmen charge that the opening of their employment records would be the first step in opening their confidential records to the public—and to competitors.

If there is such a decision, the businessmen will feel they have been deliberately slapped at a time when they are being told there is no bias against them.

Double Labor Crisis?

By Neil Gilbride

President Faces Steel, Aerospace Strike Action

WASHINGTON

President Johnson's hands-off policy toward big labor disputes faces a severe test this summer in two critical industries—steel and aerospace.

A strike in either industry would be a severe blow to Johnson's domestic, defense and space programs, and early trouble signs indicate tough sledding in both sets of negotiations.

The double-barreled crisis — if it crystallizes — will come at the height of the summer heat in August and could melt the White House resolve to let labor and management work out their own problems.

The steel industry is already balking at a pointed White House hint that it can afford to raise wages 3 per cent without a price hike.

In aerospace, militant union spokesmen predict a crisis if their demands for a union shop — plus a big wage hike — aren't met.

THE STEEL TALKS—resuming May 18 after a May 1 strike deadline was narrowly averted — cover more than 400,000 members of the United Steelworkers Union, AFL-CIO.

Talks in the aerospace industry involve some 150,000 members of the AFL-CIO United Auto Workers and the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists.

The earliest new steel strike deadline is Sept. 1, with Aug. 1 the date for serving notice to the 10 major firms involved.

Aerospace contracts with Douglas, Lockheed, Boeing and North American expire at various dates from July to September but auto workers Vice President Leonard Woodcock views August as the critical month.

Steel and aerospace union leaders complain recent contracts have not kept pace with White House guidelines, which judge noninflationary wage hikes on the basis of man-hour productivity increases. For industry as a whole, the figure suggested by the President's Council of Economic Advisers is 3.2 per cent.

In a special report on steel, the council suggested 3 per cent as the guidelines.

This nettled steel industry officials, who contend it gave union negotiators extra ammunition to carry back to the bargaining table. But the Steelworkers Union says the guideline figure is too low — it wants 17 or 18 cents an hour. Wages and fringe benefits now average $4.40 an hour.

THE AUTO workers say aerospace production and maintenance workers at $2.95 an hour lag behind average wages of $3.07 in the auto industry. The machinists have already laid down a demand for 57 cents an hour spread over three years.

But it is the demand for union security that is expected to trigger the most trouble in aerospace.

Some of the aerospace firms have "strange ideological fixations" against the union shop, says Woodcock.

The union shop would require all workers covered by the contracts to join the union.

The auto workers are willing to settle for the agency shop, under which every nonmember would have to pay the equivalent of union dues but would not have to join the union.

Congressional hearings scheduled soon on the repeal of section 14B of the Taft-Hartley Act, which permits the states to outlaw the union shop, will doubtless heighten the tension in the aerospace talks.

In both steel and aerospace, any strike would shut down the entire industry — not just a few firms.

If this happens, President Johnson might claim the national interest is being injured and he could step in to halt the strike.

Face-Lifting For U.S.

By William G. Wing

There's going to be a fresh look at the face of America. The hope is that the fresh look will inspire new ideas on preventing the uglification of the face.

The look is being made under the direction of President Johnson. It will take place in Washington today and Tuesday under the name of the White House Conference on Natural Beauty, a name that is somewhat misleading.

It suggests dahlia clubs and sunrise in Yosemite. This impression — that a beauty conference must have something to do with national parks and flowers — was probably increased last week when Johnson offhandedly linked the chairman of the conference, Laurence Rockefeller, with daffodils.

Johnson, talking to reporters about the strain of living in the White House, mentioned that he had been disturbed while napping by a discussion of daffodil-planting between Mrs. Johnson and Rockefeller.

THE IMPRESSION is misleading because the conference will not be concerned with parks or wilderness or "classic" conservation in the sense of preservation. It will not deal with flowers or prettying-up — what one of its planners calls the "cosmetic approach."

"There will be no exhorters," this planner added, "no philosophy, no formal speeches."

What is to be discussed is the places where Americans live. Since most Americans live in cities, much of the discussion will be on the urban environment.

The agenda is composed of homely subjects: junkyards, poles and wires, billboards, gas stations, suburbs and streets. The hope is that enough new ideas and sound suggestions will issue from the conference to reverse the downhill slide of America the Beautiful.

The planning is being done with a sense of urgency that stems from the White House. The planners, in their aerie in New York's RCA building have been getting frequent prods from Johnson to produce practical suggestions: not poems, or lamentations over how bad things have gotten, but solid advice on what to do.

About 60 persons in New York and in government bureaus in Washington, prepared the conference. The chief planners were Rockefeller and two of his deputies, Henry Diamond and William H. Whyte. Diamond is Rockefeller's assistant. Whyte is author of "The Organization Man" and now is an associate of Rockefeller's.

"We don't want to waste time on philosophy because the philosophical lines have already been laid down," Whyte said. "Everyone is agreed on the need for a more beautiful environment. We want to try to focus on new business."

THE FOCUSSING will be done by 15 panels gathered in three auditoriums — two at the State Department and one in the Civil Service building — before a hand-picked, invited audience.

"Almost everyone in the audience is a potential panelist," Whyte said.

As for the panelists, Rockefeller has collected an interesting bagfull of viewpoints, notable for the fact that they aren't the standard conservation - conference mix.

The panels are to take their cue from the President.

Although this aspect of Lyndon Johnson has not been emphasized, the President has had a good deal to say on the subject of a better - looking America in his Great Society speech at Ann Arbor, his State of the Union Message and, last February, in a special message on the natural beauty of our country.

The special message was as far-reaching a statement on conservation as any President has made, full of specific citations—like the plight of that friendless kook, the non-automobile-oriented American who likes to ride bicycles or walk.

In this message, Johnson said beauty "is one of the most important components of our true national income, not to be left out simply because statisticians cannot calculate its worth. . ." and, "a prime national goal must be an environment that is pleasing to the senses and healthy to live in."

THE PRESIDENT, gazing across the landscape, said, "the skeletons of discarded cars litter the countryside." He added this principle: "The same society which receives the rewards of technology must, as a cooperating whole, take responsibility for control."

In line with the President's worry over automobile graveyards, one of the panels will be on this subject. Its approach, it's said will be typical of the conference.

It is reminiscent of the elders whose digestive juices are running dry and who have incipient ulcers, yet bemoan the lack of cooking like mother used to do.

OVER A period of years, a person comes to feel comfortable in his locale. It ill becomes any emigrant to denounce the place of his birth.

All this reminds me that a while ago I went back to the place where I used to live and could hardly find it because of gas stations, hamburger joints, dry cleaning establishments and various other shops—and all of these half hidden by the glare of a multitude of neon lights.

It didn't look like my old home. I won't say it was bad, but it sure was different.

Faithfully yours,
MAX

Odd Facts

America's history is closely tied to that of the state of Virginia, particularly in the colonial period. Jamestown, founded in 1607, was the first permanent English settlement in North America and slavery was introduced there in 1619. The surrenders ending both the American Revolution and the Civil War occurred in Virginia. And the state is called the "Mother of Presidents" because eight chief executives of the U.S. were born there.

Some of our present-day standards of measurement were originally based on the length of arms, feet and legs of the human body. Our measure of a foot, which is 12 inches in length, at one time literally meant the length of a person's foot. And the measurement of a yard originally was based on the distance from the nose to the end of the thumb of Henry I of England.

Probably the largest crossword puzzle ever composed was one that was published in the "Sunday Observer" in London on Dec. 25, 1960. Thin crossword included 2,304 squares, with numbers ranging from 1 to 360 across and 1 to 351 down.

Businessmen Await Records Ruling

By Victor Riesel

Ironically, a drive to unionize an underwear manufacturer's Southern plant may yet disrupt President Johnson's skillfully private campaign to convince businessmen he is as much their friend as labor's.

Victor Riesel

Outside of the White House few are aware that the President has spent considerable time talking to industrialists in small groups. Sometime there have been as few as two or three men whom he believed to be opinion makers in the business world. Often he has talked to Vice President Hubert Humphrey about the problem.

In the last few weeks he has dispatched personal and confidential letters to those he believes are knowledgeable, asking them what they think of the course of his administration —and requesting suggestions.

It develops now that the businessmen are sensitive over many labor-relations matters—but are most sensitive over the attitude of the National Labor Relations Board.

THIS FIVE-MAN group, under the chairmanship of Frank McCulloch, a former colleague of Sen. Paul Douglas, does actually have the power to decide how a business shall function in many areas.

Businessmen view the board's decisions as a reflection of the administration's basic attitude towards them. And though the public is not aware of the latest development, the newest conversation piece inside much of the business community is a board hearing scheduled for May 20 in Washington.

It revolves around a demand by a union that an employer give it the full list of his employes' names and addresses. Then the union could propagandize them in advance of a plant election in which they would vote to choose to join or not to join organized labor.

Because there have been similar demands by other unions on other companies, the NLRB has put them all into one common hearing.

INVOLVED are the Excelsior Underwear, Inc., and Saluda Knitting, Inc., of Saluda, S.C., and one West Coast company. The Southern drive is being pushed by the Men's Clothing Union.

In each instance, the regional NLRB director adopted the established board rule that an employer is not required to hand over to a union the names and addresses of his employes. But the unions have gone over the have appealed to the national panel, which has the final say.

The business world is agitated by these cases because it expects the usually pro-labor board to reverse the regional rulings. Businessmen are disturbed because they traditionally regard the names and home addresses of their employes as privileged and confidential.

No prudent employer, one business organization spokesman said, would provide such a list to any soliciting organization, "be it commercial, charitable or fraternal."

FURTHERMORE, it was said such a decision by the board at this time would top what the business world calls a series of body blows. The board already has ruled that an employer has no right to contract out part of his business; or to automate; or even to go out of business.

The board also has ruled that a minority union can picket an employer indefinitely even when another union has been chosen by the workers there. This picketing was approved, though it could continue until the company's business is ruined, as long as the union does not claim to represent the employes inside.

The union, though a stranger to the workers, is permitted to picket on the theory that to prevent the picketing would be to impair its right of free speech.

ONE HIGHLY placed business spokesman said bitterly during a recent discussion that the board even has ruled that it's unlawful for an employer to discharge a worker who referred to the boss in the colloquialism which translates into the posterier of an equine.

Now the businessmen charge that the opening of their employment records would be the first step in opening their confidential records to the public—and to competitors.

If there is such a decision, the businessmen will feel they have been deliberately slapped at a time when they are being told there is no bias against them.

Double Labor Crisis?

By Neil Gilbride

President Faces Steel, Aerospace Strike Action

WASHINGTON

President Johnson's hands-off policy toward big labor disputes faces a severe test this summer in two critical industries—steel and aerospace.

A strike in either industry would be a severe blow to Johnson's domestic, defense and space programs, and early trouble signs indicate tough sledding in both sets of negotiations.

The double-barreled crisis — if it crystallizes — will come at the height of the summer heat in August and could melt the White House resolve to let labor and management work out their own problems.

The steel industry is already balking at a pointed White House hint that it can afford to raise wages 3 per cent without a price hike.

In aerospace, militant union spokesmen predict a crisis if their demands for a union shop — plus a big wage hike — aren't met.

THE STEEL TALKS—resuming May 18 after a May 1 strike deadline was narrowly averted — cover more than 400,000 members of the United Steelworkers Union, AFL-CIO.

Talks in the aerospace industry involve some 150,000 members of the AFL-CIO United Auto Workers and the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists.

The earliest new steel strike deadline is Sept. 1, with Aug. 1 the date for serving notice to the 10 major firms involved.

Aerospace contracts with Douglas, Lockheed, Boeing and North American expire at various dates from July to September but auto workers Vice President Leonard Woodcock views August as the critical month.

Steel and aerospace union leaders complain recent contracts have not kept pace with White House guidelines, which judge noninflationary wage hikes on the basis of man-hour productivity increases. For industry as a whole, the figure suggested by the President's Council of Economic Advisers is 3.2 per cent.

In a special report on steel, the council suggested 3 per cent as the guidelines.

This nettled steel industry officials, who contend it gave union negotiators extra ammunition to carry back to the bargaining table. But the Steelworkers Union says the guideline figure is too low — it wants 17 or 18 cents an hour. Wages and fringe benefits now average $4.40 an hour.

THE AUTO workers say aerospace production and maintenance workers at $2.95 an hour lag behind average wages of $3.07 in the auto industry. The machinists have already laid down a demand for 57 cents an hour spread over three years.

But it is the demand for union security that is expected to trigger the most trouble in aerospace.

Some of the aerospace firms have "strange ideological fixations" against the union shop, says Woodcock.

The union shop would require all workers covered by the contracts to join the union.

The auto workers are willing to settle for the agency shop, under which every nonmember would have to pay the equivalent of union dues but would not have to join the union.

Congressional hearings scheduled soon on the repeal of section 14B of the Taft-Hartley Act, which permits the states to outlaw the union shop, will doubtless heighten the tension in the aerospace talks.

In both steel and aerospace, any strike would shut down the entire industry — not just a few firms.

If this happens, President Johnson might claim the national interest is being injured and he could step in to halt the strike.

Face-Lifting For U.S.

By William G. Wing

There's going to be a fresh look at the face of America. The hope is that the fresh look will inspire new ideas on preventing the uglification of the face.

The look is being made under the direction of President Johnson. It will take place in Washington today and Tuesday under the name of the White House Conference on Natural Beauty, a name that is somewhat misleading.

It suggests dahlia clubs and sunrise in Yosemite. This impression — that a beauty conference must have something to do with national parks and flowers — was probably increased last week when Johnson offhandedly linked the chairman of the conference, Laurence Rockefeller, with daffodils.

Johnson, talking to reporters about the strain of living in the White House, mentioned that he had been disturbed while napping by a discussion of daffodil-planting between Mrs. Johnson and Rockefeller.

THE IMPRESSION is misleading because the conference will not be concerned with parks or wilderness or "classic" conservation in the sense of preservation. It will not deal with flowers or prettying-up — what one of its planners calls the "cosmetic approach."

"There will be no exhorters," this planner added, "no philosophy, no formal speeches."

What is to be discussed is the places where Americans live. Since most Americans live in cities, much of the discussion will be on the urban environment.

The agenda is composed of homely subjects: junkyards, poles and wires, billboards, gas stations, suburbs and streets. The hope is that enough new ideas and sound suggestions will issue from the conference to reverse the downhill slide of America the Beautiful.

The planning is being done with a sense of urgency that stems from the White House. The planners, in their aerie in New York's RCA building have been getting frequent prods from Johnson to produce practical suggestions: not poems, or lamentations over how bad things have gotten, but solid advice on what to do.

About 60 persons in New York and in government bureaus in Washington, prepared the conference. The chief planners were Rockefeller and two of his deputies, Henry Diamond and William H. Whyte. Diamond is Rockefeller's assistant. Whyte is author of "The Organization Man" and now is an associate of Rockefeller's.

"We don't want to waste time on philosophy because the philosophical lines have already been laid down," Whyte said. "Everyone is agreed on the need for a more beautiful environment. We want to try to focus on new business."

THE FOCUSSING will be done by 15 panels gathered in three auditoriums — two at the State Department and one in the Civil Service building — before a hand-picked, invited audience.

"Almost everyone in the audience is a potential panelist," Whyte said.

As for the panelists, Rockefeller has collected an interesting bagfull of viewpoints, notable for the fact that they aren't the standard conservation - conference mix.

The panels are to take their cue from the President.

Although this aspect of Lyndon Johnson has not been emphasized, the President has had a good deal to say on the subject of a better - looking America in his Great Society speech at Ann Arbor, his State of the Union Message and, last February, in a special message on the natural beauty of our country.

The special message was as far-reaching a statement on conservation as any President has made, full of specific citations—like the plight of that friendless kook, the non-automobile-oriented American who likes to ride bicycles or walk.

In this message, Johnson said beauty "is one of the most important components of our true national income, not to be left out simply because statisticians cannot calculate its worth. . ." and, "a prime national goal must be an environment that is pleasing to the senses and healthy to live in."

THE PRESIDENT, gazing across the landscape, said, "the skeletons of discarded cars litter the countryside." He added this principle: "The same society which receives the rewards of technology must, as a cooperating whole, take responsibility for control."

In line with the President's worry over automobile graveyards, one of the panels will be on this subject. Its approach, it's said will be typical of the conference.

'Megalopolis' Trend Shows Need For Regional Planning

KENT, Ohio (AP)—You may not be aware of it, but if you live in Northeastern Ohio, Megalopolis is on the way.

What is Megalopolis?

You can see its beginnings on the map, where growing tenacles reach out from one big urban center toward the next.

You see it in the dwindling open spaces as you drive in almost any direction in Northeastern Ohio.

". . . Practically all of the residents of Northeast Ohio are or soon will be residing within America's second rapidly growing Megalopolis," says Dr. Robert I. White, president of Kent State University.

The first area classified as Megalopolis is around New York City. Dr. White describes that area along the Atlantic seaboard this way:

"Here the populace lives nearly house-to-house, door-to-door, from the area above Boston to that below Washington . . ."

The second Megalopolis—described as a string or bunching of central cities, suburbs and satellite areas — is developing from Pittsburgh in a strip that runs through Chicago and Milwaukee.

Dr. White is sounding a call for an intelligent approach to regional planning to head off some problems which inevitably come with Megalopolis.

Under his leadership, Kent State is setting up a planning center to be known as the Center for Urban Regionalism.

Dr. Robert C. Weaver, administrator of the housing and home finance agency, will attend a conference on urban regionalism this weekend to help launch the new center. The two-day conference opens Friday, and Weaver is scheduled to address a dinner meeting Friday.

Where urban areas run together problems are bound to develop. These problems — transportation, water pollution, sewage disposal, flood control, maintenance of open spaces—need to be handled on a regional rather than a local basis, Dr. White says.

"The challenge is staggering," he adds. "It deserves immediate and urgent attention if we are to protect the welfare of our great country and the generations to come."

Wind, Rain Hit Area After Tornado 'Alert'

Stiff winds and some brief showers hit the East Liverpool district Sunday night after the U. S. Weather Bureau had issued a tornado alert for parts of Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania, but the area escaped with only minor damage.

Some tree limbs were downed and a few utility lines were snapped, but reports indicatd no appreciable damage as a result of the storm, which hit more destructively to the north.

It will be clearing this afternoon and tonight and Tuesday will be sunny and warmer, the weatherman said. The low tonight will be 40-46.

Wife Faces Charges After Beaver Slaying

BEAVER — A New Brighton district man died in a hail of bullets early Sunday night outside his home and authorities said his wife will be arraigned this afternoon on a murcer charge.

Police said Donald St. Clair, 40, was shot five times with a 22-caliber revolver by his wife, Carol, 32, following an argument over the couple's seven-month-old baby. The shooting occured in the driveway of their home in Willowmere Plan.

$2,094 Given In Drive For Mental Health

A total of $2,094.32 was raised Sunday in the annual door-to-door canvass to aid the Hancock-Brooke County Mental Health Society.

Advance gifts of $1,861 raised to $3,955.99 the total received this year, according to Mrs. E. M. Clubb, president of the society.

The society and Weirton Lodge 1658, B'nai B'rith, today expressed thanks to all volunteer workers in Hancock and Brooke Counties who participated in the solicitation and to the public for its contributions.

The money will insure the continuation of the mental health service at the Weirton General Hospital for residents of the two counties, Mrs. Clubb said.

The Mental Health Society and B'nai B'rith were co-sponsors for the drive.

C. G. Tournay, president of Weirton Steel Co., was honorary chairman for the drive. B'nai B'rith general chairman was Dr. Eli J. Weller. Co-chairmen representing the Mental Health Society were Victory Greco and Walter Nogay.

Man Escapes Fine On Tags

Because the two cars are registered in his wife's name, a parking violation charge against Robert Harding, 1011 May St., was dismissed today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Harding was arraigned on an affidavit filed by Mrs. Ruby English, a "Meter Maid," alleging that he had parked a car in a bus stop on 5th St. on May 7, 1964. Two other unpaid tickets were attached to the affidavit.

Action Lags On Voting Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate enters its fourth week of debate on the voting-rights bill today with a final vote as elusive as ever.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield told reporters he has no immediate plans to try to apply cloture. And Southerners were ready again with an amendment that would soften the measure.

"We will continue to act on amendments as they are called up," Mansfield said in announcing that for the time being he won't try to round up the two-thirds majority needed to end debate.

Earlier, Mansfield and Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen were talking in terms of cloture, but Dirksen said last week he doubted two-thirds of the Senate would support it.

Man Escapes Fine On Tags

Because the two cars are registered in his wife's name, a parking violation charge against Robert Harding, 1011 May St., was dismissed today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Harding was arraigned on an affidavit filed by Mrs. Ruby English, a "Meter Maid," alleging that he had parked a car in a bus stop on 5th St. on May 7, 1964. Two other unpaid tickets were attached to the affidavit.

Without entering a plea, Harding explained the cars are registered in his wife's name and produced the 1964 registration.

"You're right, Mr. Harding; as far as you're concerned this case is dismissed," the judge said.

The motorist later went to the parking desk on the main floor of City Hall and paid a total of $6 on the three tickets.

Dolores J. Thomas of Westfield Rd., cited for overtime parking Nov. 4 on Market St. by Mrs. English, forfeited a $31.50 bond. Seven other unpaid tickets were attached to the affidavit.

Action Lags On Voting Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate enters its fourth week of debate on the voting-rights bill today with a final vote as elusive as ever.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield told reporters he has no immediate plans to try to apply cloture. And Southerners were ready again with an amendment that would soften the measure.

"We will continue to act on amendments as they are called up," Mansfield said in announcing that for the time being he won't try to round up the two-thirds majority needed to end debate.

Earlier, Mansfield and Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen were talking in terms of cloture, but Dirksen said last week he doubted two-thirds of the Senate would support it.

Employe Meeting Set

LISBON — The area branch of the Ohio Civil Service Employes Association will meet Tuesday night at 8 at Village Hall, according to Russell V. Phillis, secretary.

'Dairy Princess' To Be Chosen In National Contest

LISBON — The Columbiana County Dairymen's Council, in co-operation with the American Dairy Association, again is sponsoring a "dairy princess" contest, according to Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture.

The young women selected from Columbiana County will participate in the state contest at Columbus June 25-26, with the state winner continuing to the national contest to be held later in the summer. The state winner receives an allowance for a wardrobe and becomes the dairy princess spokesman for the dairy industry in Ohio.

Young women were urged to enter the contest by Leonard Lowmiller of Minerrva R. D. 2, chairman of the Columbiana County Dairymen's Council. Entry requirements include — having a dairy farm background, being at least 16 but not over 25 years of age as of June 1, unmarried, a high school graduate or to graduate by June 1, and a resident of Columbiana County.

The 1964 county dairy princess was Doris Vincent of Salem R. D. 2, who participated in the county and state activities.

Entry forms may be obtained by contacting the Co-operative Extension Service, 113 S. Market St. Entries should be made by June 1. Selection of the county winner will be made following that date, Myers said.

Burglary Suspect Has Key For New City Hall

ASHTABULA, Ohio (AP)—Police were startled when they found the key to the front door of the new City Hall and police station—in the pocket of a man picked up for questioning in a series of home break-ins.

The building is so new that even the police don't have their keys yet. Officials have not yet moved in.

The man who was arrested Sunday told police he had worked for a contractor who helped work on the City Hall.

Court Dismisses Fighting Charge

A fighting charge against Robert Jackson, 18, of 824 Pennsylvania Ave. was dismissed for lack of evidence today in Municipal Court by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Jackson, who had pleaded innocent, said he was accosted by three boys Saturday night on Mulberry St. and asked if he wanted to fight. He said he declined and crossed the street, but one took off his shirt and struck him, starting the street brawl.

Patrolman Jack Walsh said he broke up the fight but the other youth grabbed his shirt and fled. The officer said he pursued the youth but was unable to catch him.

"You should be ashamed of yourself; your father has worked hard but you are a burden to the rest of the family," Judge Chertoff told Jackson. "The next time you appear here, I won't think of your father but of you."

Ohio House Eyes Election Changes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Bills designed to improve Ohio's election procedures by saving time and money are up for votes tonight in the Ohio House.

Four election measures will be considered, including a proposal allowing polling places to record absentee and disabled voter ballots on machines to save tabulating expenses.

Others would provide for signs clearly designating polling places—in addition to American flags—reduce from two to one the number of registration cards an elector must sign, and permit election boards to decide by majority vote, instead of unanimously, whether as many as 50 lists of registered voters will be printed for limited distribution.

Minor measures are on tonight's Senate calendar as the lawmakers return from weekend recess to begin their 18th week of work.

Reapportionment continues as the major obstacle to adjournment of the legislative session although the GOP administration's appropriations bills still must clear the evenly divided Senate.

Hearings are scheduled to begin Wednesday before the Senate Elections and Civil Service Committee on four upper chamber proposals to shape new Ohio House districts.

Norman R. Buzzard, 25, of East Liverpool R. D. 1 was sentenced to six months in the County Jail when he changed his plea to guilty to a charge of assault and battery this morning before Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp at Lisbon.

Buzzard had pleaded not guilty to robbery of money, a watch and a ring from Jack R. Bowersock after he was indicted by the April Grand Jury. He was allowed to plead to the lesser charge.

the continued healthy growth of our economy. Barring some sudden change in the present world situation, I am sure that these excise tax reductions will be a sound and profitable investment in that growth."

And, to insure that the tax reduction make a maximum contribution to price stability and balanced prosperity, Johnson said:

"I call on American business to translate lower excise taxes promptly into lower retail prices for consumers."

Johnson spelled out in more detail his proposals made in a statement Saturday:

On retail taxes — those the buyers pay in the markets and stores — the complete repeal of levies on handbags, luggage, toilet articles, jewelry and furs on July 1.

On taxes manufacturers pay before the products reach the dealers — complete repeal on July 1 of those on business machines, sporting goods other than fishing gear, radios, television sets, phonographs and records, musical instruments, cameras, film and other photographic equipment, refrigerators, freezers, air conditioners, electric, gas and oil appliances, fountain and ballpoint pens, mechanical pencils, lighters, matches and playing cards.

Miscellaneous taxes — Repeal at midyear of those on safe deposit boxes, coin-operated amusement devices, bowling alleys and pool tables.

As previously announced, the tax on cars would come down from 10 to 7 per cent July 1 and later on to 5 per cent effective Jan. 1, 1967. There woild be an intermediate reduction to 6 per cent on Jan. 1, 1966.

But Johnson proposed to retain a 5 per cent tax on passenger cars permanently as an important source of federal revenue.

Effective Jan. 1, of next year, Johnson proposed:

Admission taxes — Complete repeal, including the tax on admissions to certain movies, theaters, concerts, racing and athletic events, cabarets and club dues.

Repeal of manufacturer's taxes on lubricating oil and electric light bulbs, and repeal of the tax on auto parts and accessories except those primarily for truck use.

Repeal of the documentary stamp taxes on stocks and bonds and deeds.

A cut in local and long-distance telephone taxes from 10 to 3 per cent, with teletypewriter service included, and with a further reduction of 1 per cent a year each Jan. 1 until the tax is wiped out entirely by 1969.

publican seeking office for the first time; Atty. J. Frank Kelker, a Rochester Republican; Atty. Eugene A. Caputo, Democrat, of Ambridge; Atty. Arthur S. Herskovitz, Aliquippa Democrat, and Atty. Joseph A. Reiser, a Beaver Democrat.

Judge Scalera has the support of a GOP faction and a bi-partisan committee, while Sawyer is being supported, at least unofficially, by Russell O. Wright, county GOP chairman.

The Democratic organization has endorsed Caputo and Herskovitz.

The only other countywide race on the ballot is for jury commissioner. On the Democratic slate, Sam Urick of Aliquippa, an incumbent, is opposed by Anna Mae Dugan of Raccoon Township. The GOP candidates are Ethel Powell of New Brighton, an incumbent, and J. Gus Karatitsos of Ambridge.

Party officials expect 50 to 60 per cent of the 95,000 registered voters will go to the polls.

Most of the smaller communities will see many uncontested races and will depend on the write-ins to fill numerous ballot spots.

In Georgetown, for example, the Republicans list only four candidates for 10 offices, and the Democratic ballot will list only one candidate.

In Midland, the Democratic voters will have candidates aplenty with seven seeking four Council seats; four asking the three school directors' posts, and five seeking nomination to the one tax collector's position.

Every municipality will nominate mayors, tax collectors, supervisors or commissioners, school directors, councilmen and auditors.

The only special election is in Chippewa Township where voters will decide if they want liquor sold in the township. The measure, which can be voted on every four years, was defeated in 1961.

The 133 voting places in the county will open at 8 a. m. and close at 9 p. m. By state law, public bars throughout the state will not open until an hour after the polls close.

Polls in Midland and nearby communities are unchanged.

Midland's are in the Borough Building, 1st precinct; 7th St. School, 2nd; Croatian Hall, 3rd; 4th St. School, 4th, and Midland Community Building, 5th.

Others include Hookstown, Borough Building; Georgetown, Borough Building; Greene Township, Hookstown Grange Hall; Hanover Township, Township Building, East District, and the J. A. McConnell Building, West District.

Glasgow, School House; Industry, Lutheran Church, 1st District, and Industry School, 2nd District; Ohioville, Municipal Building, 1st District, and Fairview School, 2nd District;

Raccoon Township, Elementary School, and Shippingport, Community Building.

State Police now have hit three establishments in 12 days, the first raid occurring May 14 at the Hilltop Tavern, located at the intersection of State Route 2 and Route 30.

In Midland, the Democratic voters will have candidates aplenty with seven seeking four Council seats; four asking the three school directors' posts, and five seeking nomination to the one tax collector's position.

Every municipality will nominate mayors, tax collectors, supervisors or commissioners, school directors, councilmen and auditors.

The only special election is in Chippewa Township where voters will decide if they want liquor sold in the township. The measure, which can be voted on every four years, was defeated in 1961.

The 133 voting places in the county will open at 8 a. m. and close at 9 p. m. By state law, public bars throughout the state will not open until an hour after the polls close.

Polls in Midland and nearby communities are unchanged.

Midland's are in the Borough Building, 1st precinct; 7th St. School, 2nd; Croatian Hall, 3rd; 4th St. School, 4th, and Midland Community Building, 5th.

Others include Hookstown, Borough Building; Georgetown, Borough Building; Greene Township, Hookstown Grange Hall; Hanover Township, Township Building, East District, and the J. A. McConnell Building, West District.

Glasgow, School House; Industry, Lutheran Church, 1st District, and Industry School, 2nd District; Ohioville, Municipal Building, 1st District, and Fairview School, 2nd District;

Raccoon Township, Elementary School, and Shippingport, Community Building.

Wellsville Storm Destroys Trees

Two trees were felled as the result of a storm Sunday evening in Wellsville.

Lightning struck a tree at the home of Mrs. Hugh Connor, 1107 Riverside Ave., causing it to fall over. The limbs broke out a window, tore down the telephone line to the home and hit the roof of a garage next door. Mrs. Connor said the lightinig cut the tree off about 15 feet above the ground.

A tree at the home of Mrs. Charles Ewing of Broadway was cracked by the high winds and had to be cut down. It was in danger of falling on nearby buildings.

Questioning Due Coed Attacked At Kent State

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP)—Kent police hope today to question Teresa Harpe, 22-year-old Kent State University coed who was severely beaten last Wednesday night as she walked along the Cuyahoga River bank near the downtown Kent area with Samuel Rohio, a 26-year-old exchange student from Kenya, Africa.

She is reported in serious condition at Robinson Memorial Hospital here. Rohio said a man struck him from behind then held a gun on him as he beat Miss Harpe, of Steubenville.

Sacré bleu!

It took those sophisticated French to finally come up with the first worthy replacement for the DC-3.

Those French! They've always been best known here for exports that come in drams, fifths, yards, and bikinis. Yet, now they've come up with one measured in tons and miles—the new NORD 262, first worthy replacement for America's old reliable DC-3.

Anything the DC-3 does, the prop-JET Nord does newer. It gets you there faster, and more comfortably. It's air conditioned. Pressurized. Boards on the level. According to the U.S. Civil Aeronautics Board, the NORD 262 is a new aircraft "especially suited" for short haul routes of the type Lake Central flies to 50 mid-central U.S.A. cities. Which is why Lake Central is the first U.S. airline to engage this new French beauty.

Dear Folks: If you buy two-pound loaves of bread, and are always complaining that the bread is not as fresh as the day you opened it, try this:

Keep your bread in your deep freezer or the freezing compartment of your refrigerator.

If you ordinaily use ornly a third of a loaf of bread per week, take the frozen loaf out of your freezer compartment, and break off as much of the bread as you think you will use in the next day or two.

Wrap this and put it in your bread box.

The wrapper on the remaining bread can be fastened with a rubber band and the bread put back in the freezer until more is needed.

Bread will not get stale this way.

-:-

ANOTHER THING, if you happen to have three or four slices of not-so-fresh bread and would like to rejuvenate it, remove it from your bread box and alternate three or four slices of frozen bread in with it. This softens the two-day-old bread.

For those of you who do not have good bread boxes, the plastic refrigerator dishes with the air-tight tops are wonderful!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Plastic hangers that come with many two-piece baby outfits are perfect for hanging plastic pants to dry.

I just slip the pants over the bottom of these hangers and hang them over the shower rod.

They dry faster, don't stick together, crack, or get hard.

DOROTHY GEHRKE.

-:-

DEAR HELOISE: If you have a young child who wants to paint with water colors, and you don't have a paint brush . . .

I found that an empty roll-on deodorant bottle works great. Just remove the ball and the small piece of plastic that's around it, then pour the paint in and replace the ball.

Make sure you don't try this with oil paint!

SHARON PAGE.

DEAR HELOISE: What to do with those odds and ends of left-over self-adhesive plastic covering?

Wrap the strips around your lint-remover and use in place of refills.

N.N.G.

DEAR HELOISE: These days the Post Office Department has issued so many new stamps, and I find special ways to use different ones.

For instance, on a sympathy card, I put the eternal flame stamp; on a baby card or card to a newly-wed, I use the new homemaker's stamp.

On a letter to someone who loves music, or is a musician, one could use the American music stamp, or in a certain state . . . a state stamp. These are all quite recent stamps.

For some time my husband (Yes, he's a postmaster) brings home some of every new issue, and if I can see they'd be nice to use a special way, we buy several to have on hand.

MRS. ELMER T. TREINEN.

DEAR HELOISE: When our children were small, I strung a couple of spools on a piece of heavy yarn and tied it to the screen door handle, leaving the spools hanging way below the handle.

The children could reach the spools, pull on them and open the door themselves . . . and it saved Mom many, many steps.

Meter Struck In Auto Crash

A parking meter was damaged in a freak two - way auto crash Sunday at 1:51 a. m. on Washington St. 65 feet east of Diamond Alley, police reported.

The collision involved a 1962 sedan driven by Nelson K. Reed, 37, of 1018 Pennsylvania Ave. and a parked 1955 four - door sedan owned by Edwin Crawford, 1011 Crawford Rd., Wellsville, officers said.

Reed's auto struck the parked car in the rear, shoving it over the curb and causing it to knock the meter off its standard, officers reported.

Reed told police he pulled from a parking place further north on Washington St. and as he started forward an ash from a cigarette fell into his lap. Reed said he looked down to brush away the hot ash and his car struck the Crawford vehicle.

Reed was cited on a reckless driving charge.

Reed pleaded guilty before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff this morning, but sentencing was continued until Thursday morning. If he makes arrangements to pay for the damages, that fact will be considered, Judge Chertoff said.

Patrolmen David K. Mumaw and Ronald Brooks invesitgated. They said there was damage to the right front fender and bumper of Reed's auto and the rear bumper and trunk of the Crawford car. However, the possible damage to Crawford's car may not have been apparent fully at the time of the collision, they said.

FIRST SUN GLASS

This summer, as you again turn to colored glasses to shield your eyes from the sun, give a thought to Nero who really started the whole thing. History tells us that he used a large emerald to protect his weak eyes when viewing Gladiatorial shows in the arena. Precious gems have been used in other odd ways, too, besides conventional adornment.

Delicate tea cups of carved jade were among the treasures of the Chinese Emperors, and they were in frequent use, also. Many no doubt have heard of the fabulous carved gem easter eggs made by Faberge for the Russian Czar and the royal family during the last century. Bowls, cigarette cases and boxes of carved gems were especially favored by Edwardian gentlemen with the means to afford these items, and today are often seen in museum collections.

Diamond buttons were frequently used on the fancy brocade coats worn by the monarchs of France, and of course, from Queen Elizabeth's time on, women used much seed pearl embroidery to enliven their flowing dresses. Amethyst, jade, lazuli and carnelian were carved into unique "buckles" which fastened the robes of high ranking Mandarins while the Japanese enjoyed fingering intricately carved "netsukes" of ivory, or gems, often inlaid with other precious stones.

While we do not have items such as I mentioned in stock, you will find our collection of fine jewelry set with precious gems an impressive one. Stop in soon and let us show you some of the interesting new pieces we have received. Fine jewelry, like a beautiful woman, deserves to be admired.

KKK Hails Trio In Rights Killing At Large Rallies

SANFORD, N.C. (AP)—Collie Leroy Wilkins and two other men accused of slaying a Detroit civil-rights worker attracted thousands of persons to Ku Klux Klan rallies during the weekend.

Wilkins, 21, whose murder trial recently ended in a hung jury, signed autographs at the rallies.

A crowd estimated at 6,000 cheered loudly Saturday at Dunn when Alabama attorney Matt Murphy Jr. introduced Wilkins and two others charged in the case, William O. Eaton, 41, and Eugene Thomas, 42.

Some 2,000 greeted the Alabamians with cheers at Sanford Sunday evening.

North Carolina's KKK grand dragon, Robert Jones of Granite Quarry, called the Dunn rally "among our best yet" and said Murphy would be back next weekend for a march and rally at Farmville, another small eastern North Carolina tobacco town.

Murphy and the three men charged in the slaying of Viola Liuzzo the night the Selma-to-Montgomery march ended came to North Carolina as part of a new KKK drive for membership and funds.

One woman at the Sanford rally went through the crowd asking for contributions toward the purchase of a Klan airplane.

War Air Hero Dies

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Fred P. Dollenberg, 49, who shot down 17 Japanese planes and sank five Japanese warships in World War II, died Saturday of cancer. A major at war's end, he later became a colonel in the Air Force Reserve.

The apple grows in nearly every state.

Meter Struck In Auto Crash

A parking meter was damaged in a freak two - way auto crash Sunday at 1:51 a. m. on Washington St. 65 feet east of Diamond Alley, police reported.

The collision involved a 1962 sedan driven by Nelson K. Reed, 37, of 1018 Pennsylvania Ave. and a parked 1955 four - door sedan owned by Edwin Crawford, 1011 Crawford Rd., Wellsville, officers said.

Reed's auto struck the parked car in the rear, shoving it over the curb and causing it to knock the meter off its standard, officers reported.

Reed told police he pulled from a parking place further north on Washington St. and as he started forward an ash from a cigarette fell into his lap. Reed said he looked down to brush away the hot ash and his car struck the Crawford vehicle.

Reed was cited on a reckless driving charge.

Reed pleaded guilty before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff this morning, but sentencing was continued until Thursday morning. If he makes arrangements to pay for the damages, that fact will be considered, Judge Chertoff said.

Patrolmen David K. Mumaw and Ronald Brooks invesitgated. They said there was damage to the right front fender and bumper of Reed's auto and the rear bumper and trunk of the Crawford car. However, the possible damage to Crawford's car may not have been apparent fully at the time of the collision, they said.

FIRST SUN GLASS

This summer, as you again turn to colored glasses to shield your eyes from the sun, give a thought to Nero who really started the whole thing. History tells us that he used a large emerald to protect his weak eyes when viewing Gladiatorial shows in the arena. Precious gems have been used in other odd ways, too, besides conventional adornment.

Delicate tea cups of carved jade were among the treasures of the Chinese Emperors, and they were in frequent use, also. Many no doubt have heard of the fabulous carved gem easter eggs made by Faberge for the Russian Czar and the royal family during the last century. Bowls, cigarette cases and boxes of carved gems were especially favored by Edwardian gentlemen with the means to afford these items, and today are often seen in museum collections.

Diamond buttons were frequently used on the fancy brocade coats worn by the monarchs of France, and of course, from Queen Elizabeth's time on, women used much seed pearl embroidery to enliven their flowing dresses. Amethyst, jade, lazuli and carnelian were carved into unique "buckles" which fastened the robes of high ranking Mandarins while the Japanese enjoyed fingering intricately carved "netsukes" of ivory, or gems, often inlaid with other precious stones.

While we do not have items such as I mentioned in stock, you will find our collection of fine jewelry set with precious gems an impressive one. Stop in soon and let us show you some of the interesting new pieces we have received. Fine jewelry, like a beautiful woman, deserves to be admired.

KKK Hails Trio In Rights Killing At Large Rallies

SANFORD, N.C. (AP)—Collie Leroy Wilkins and two other men accused of slaying a Detroit civil-rights worker attracted thousands of persons to Ku Klux Klan rallies during the weekend.

Wilkins, 21, whose murder trial recently ended in a hung jury, signed autographs at the rallies.

A crowd estimated at 6,000 cheered loudly Saturday at Dunn when Alabama attorney Matt Murphy Jr. introduced Wilkins and two others charged in the case, William O. Eaton, 41, and Eugene Thomas, 42.

Some 2,000 greeted the Alabamians with cheers at Sanford Sunday evening.

North Carolina's KKK grand dragon, Robert Jones of Granite Quarry, called the Dunn rally "among our best yet" and said Murphy would be back next weekend for a march and rally at Farmville, another small eastern North Carolina tobacco town.

Murphy and the three men charged in the slaying of Viola Liuzzo the night the Selma-to-Montgomery march ended came to North Carolina as part of a new KKK drive for membership and funds.

One woman at the Sanford rally went through the crowd asking for contributions toward the purchase of a Klan airplane.

Drivers Cited On 2 Crashes

A Lisbon area woman was cited for driving an unsafe vehicle and a Minerva man was arrested for reckless operation as the result of two area accidents investigated over the weekend by the State Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

A car driven by Ella Mitchell, 48, of Lisbon R. D. 1 struck a bus driven by Peter Metrovitch, 30, of East Liverpool R. D. 2 Saturday at 11 a. m. on Route 45 just over four miles north of Lisbon, officers said.

The woman was southbound and when she applied the brakes the car slid left of center and struck the bus. Moderate damage resulted to both vehicles.

William J. Hardgrove, 32, of Minerva R. D. 2 was cited for reckless operation after his car hit a tractor-trailer rig operated by Paul Edwin Jarvis, 28, of Salineville R. D. 3 Sunday night at 7:45 on Route 30 seven-tenths of a mile easto of Minerva.

Hardgrove was unable to slow for traffic ahead, drove off the right side of the highway and rammed into a concrete abutment, the patrol said. The car then went back on the highway, swerved between two other cars and continued on left of center until it hit the truck.

Hardgrove suffered a laceration of the nose and abrasions of the right leg. Extensive damage resulted to the truck.

Thief Obtains Shoes; Check's Termed Clue

A thief escaped with a pair of shoes Saturday night about 8 at the new Pic-Way Shoe Mart on Pennsylvania Ave., but a salesman obtained a clue to aid police in the investigation.

The salesman told Patrolman Samuel E. Hayes a man attempted to steal two pairs of shoes, but was apprehended. He said the man then paid for one pair of shoes with a check. The check was made payable to the "customer" and endorsed by him, he said.

"But by some trick or scheme, the man got out of the store with the other pair of shoes anyway," officers reported. The suspect left the scene in an auto driven by an unknown man, but the salesman obtained the car's license number.

Bailey Named Secretary In West Virginia

CHARLESTON (AP) — Veteran Wyoming County attorney Robert D. Bailey of Pineville was to be sworn into office this afternoon as West Virginia secretary of state.

Bailey, 52, was appointed Sunday by Gov. Hulett Smith to replace Joe Burdett, who died last Wednesday after a stroke.

Bailey, a Democrat, was Wyoming County prosecutor for 12 years before resigning in 1961 to devote his full time to private practice. Earlier, he spent 12 years as assistant prosecuting attorney.

A native of Baileysville in Wyoming County — a town named for his grandfather—Bailey has lived in Pineville 42 years. He is the son of the late Robert D. Bailey, who served as judge of the Wyoming-Mingo County Circuit Court.

Bailey attended Concord College and graduated from William and Mary's law school in 1934. He is married to the former Jean Hickman and the father of Robert D. Bailey III, 18, a freshman at Concord College.

Smith, in announcing the appointment, said Bailey's integrity is "above reproach" and he is an "outstanding citizen who has devoted most of his adult life to public service."

Bailey Named Secretary In West Virginia

CHARLESTON (AP) — Veteran Wyoming County attorney Robert D. Bailey of Pineville was to be sworn into office this afternoon as West Virginia secretary of state.

Bailey, 52, was appointed Sunday by Gov. Hulett Smith to replace Joe Burdett, who died last Wednesday after a stroke.

Bailey, a Democrat, was Wyoming County prosecutor for 12 years before resigning in 1961 to devote his full time to private practice. Earlier, he spent 12 years as assistant prosecuting attorney.

A native of Baileysville in Wyoming County — a town named for his grandfather—Bailey has lived in Pineville 42 years. He is the son of the late Robert D. Bailey, who served as judge of the Wyoming-Mingo County Circuit Court.

Bailey attended Concord College and graduated from William and Mary's law school in 1934. He is married to the former Jean Hickman and the father of Robert D. Bailey III, 18, a freshman at Concord College.

Smith, in announcing the appointment, said Bailey's integrity is "above reproach" and he is an "outstanding citizen who has devoted most of his adult life to public service."

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm married to a man who drowns everything in catsup.

Before we were married I noticed Louie's mother always had two bottles on the table and the whole family went for it like crazy. But have you ever heard of catsup on fried eggs? Well, that's the way Louie likes 'em. Lots of people use catsup with French fries — but on mashed potatoes, too?

The other night we were at the home of friends and someone mentioned that Louie never could be a blood donor because he probably doesn't have blood —only catsup. This got a big laugh. Then Louie said, "I eat catsup on everything, even ice cream."

With that, the hostess brought him a dish of chocolate ice cream and a bottle of catsup. All eyes were on Louie as he poured about one-third of the bottle on the ice cream. This was after three vodka martinis and I was hoping he would get sick as a dog. But he didn't. I got sick.

This morning I phoned our doctor and asked if so much catsup could injure Louie's health. He said, "I check your husband regularly. He is in good condition. Catsup won't hurt him." What do I do now? —SEEING RED.

Dear Red: Now accept the fact that Louie is hooked on catsup. Keep plenty on hand and make no mention of his excesses. When he grows up he won't resort to cheap parlor stunts in an effort to capture an audience.

Morbid Mourners

Dear Ann: In a recent column you said, "People don't have to be invited to the home of the bereaved after the funeral — they just go."

I wish you hadn't printed that, Ann. In our town we have a couple of nutty women who show up at every funeral whether they know the family or not.

They are the first ones in the church, always getting as close to the family as possible so they can see how everybody is taking it. If there is a service at the cemetery they are right there —rain or shine — standing at the grave, gawking and rubbernecking.

If a widow or mother faints, their day is complete. Then they crowd into the car of a relative because they know a free meal is in sight.

Speaking for myself, I hate funerals and dread it when I have to attend one. Will you tell me what makes people WANT to see others grieving?—P.L.R.

-:-

Dear P.L.R. Morbid curiosity—the same twisted emotion that makes some people rush to the scene of an accident. One in 50 wants to help — but most of the accident chasers want only to look.

Of course it's sick, but nothing can be done to keep such people away unless the funeral is declared private and a guard is posted at the door with the list of those who have been invited.

Date Bait

Dear Ann: Our school is having a big dance. This is one dance I don't want to miss, no matter what.

I'm scared to death some creep will ask me and I'll be stuck. On the other hand, if I turn the creep down I may not get asked by anyone better. Then I'd end up staying home.

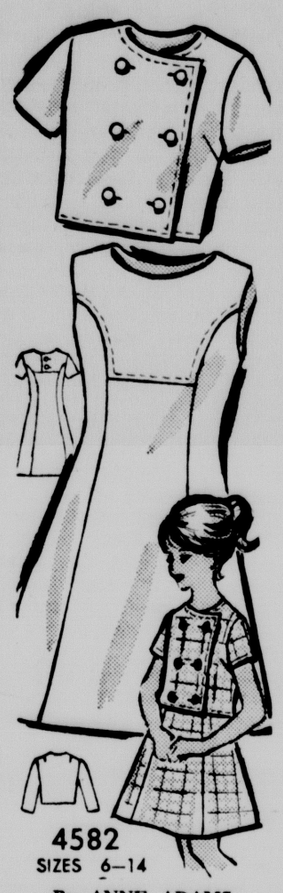

As you can see, I'm in a terrible spot. Any advice?—UNCERTAIN.

—:—

Dear Uncertain: I've never bought the idea that ANY date is better than none. But why should a girl who is A1, super-deluxe herself worry about getting snatched up by a creep? Why aren't the top guys beating her door down? Clue me. I'm baffled.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self - addressed envelope.

The Rolls Royce motor car costs from $17,000 to $30,000.

A "low-priced 3" costs as little as $2,000.

The basic ingredients are the same in both.

But there's a world of difference between a Royce and the other. Even 'l.p.3' admits it.

Isaly's Hand-Dipped Ice Cream costs 89¢ a quart.

Pre-packaged Ice Cream costs as little as 24½¢.

The basic ingredients are the same in both.

It's Good Weather For Painting

Roll out the paint, brushes, and scrapers — the weather's fine for exterior house painting.

The humidity is low and the days in general are sunny and warm. Now is the ideal time to protect one of your biggest investments with a fresh coat of paint.

Whether you plan to take brush or roller in hand or hire a professional to apply your fresh coat of paint, there's wisdom in knowing all you can about the procedure.

These tips from the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association will help you select "topnotch" workmen or do-it-yourself with competence.

—:—

THE FIRST step toward a successful job is preparing the surface for painting.

The surface on which the new paint is to be applied must be sound, smooth and dry. All loose dirt should be brushed away; all rust on metal surfaces should be eliminated with the aid of a wire brush and steel wool. Roughened surfaces should be sanded smooth and all cracks or holes should be filled with putty or similar material.

Remove scaled, cracked or blistered paint wiht a paint remover and subsequent scraping with a broad knife. Burning off the old paint is the most effective way, but leave this to the professionals. It is too hazardous for the amateur.

Replace rotted wood or moisture damaged areas. Under eaves, around window heads and sills, on posts and steps are logical moisture hideouts. Where wood replacements are required, apply a priming coat to the new wood as soon as possible.

Seal knots or sappy streaks with a special knot sealer before the prime coat is applied. This prevents sap from "bleeding" through. The primer blocks the entrance of moisture — or in the case of metal, prevents further rusting. Red lead, zinc yellow, oxide or iron or zinc dust - zinc oxide should be used for all metal; outside house primer for wood.

—:—

MILDEWED surfaces should be washed thoroughly with an alkaline cleaning solution, then rinsed well with clear water.

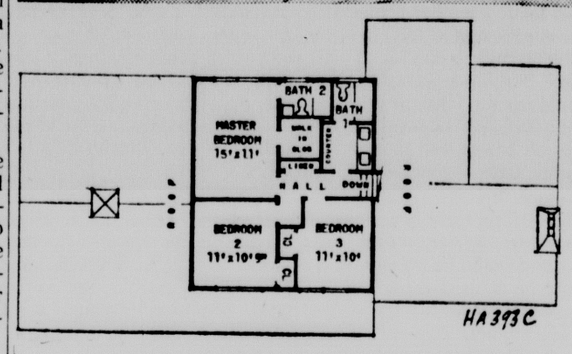

Before you start the actual painting, be sure the surface is absolutely dry unless you are using latex paint and that all tools and materials needed are at hand.

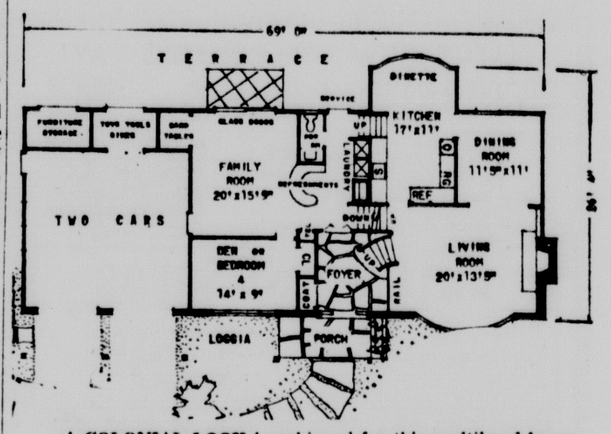

Start by selecting a quality paint and quality applicators, suited to the surface to be covered. A quality exterior house paint is suitable for wood, masonry and some metal surfaces. For the latter, however, especially metal railings, exterior enamel is preferred. For the brick, stone or stucco structure, masonry paint is recommended.

Some people prefer rollers. Others prefer a 4½-to-5-inch brush for large areas and a 1½-to-2-inch brush for trim. Quality is important and the surface to be coated should determine the type of brush or roller used.

The real fun is selecting the finish or color combination and watching the new coat of quality paint bring new beauty to your home. Why wait? The weather's fine for house painting and a new coat of color is a wise investment in the future welfare of your home.

A COLONIAL LOOK is achieved for this multilevel home, with its long covered loggia at the front. Den and family room are on the entry level. A sweeping staircase leads up to the living room. The kitchen has a dinette bow that is lovely. The upper level consists of three bedrooms and two baths. The area for living and bedroom levels is 1,288 square feet. Plan HA393C is designed by Architect Lester Cohen, Room 704, 48 W. 48th St., New York, N. Y. 10036.

Tips Are Offered On Roof Shingles

Question: I live in an old home and am about to replace the wood shingles on my roof with asphalt shingles. I have three questions. Must the wood shingles be removed first? How many squares of roofing material will I need? What is meant by heavyweight asphalt shingles?

Answer: Judging by the mail recently, a lot of persons are planning on reroofing in the months ahead.

It would be costly and wasteful to remove the old roof. Asphalt shingles can be applied directly over them after first securely attaching any of the old shingles that may be loose. The extra thickness will give your home an additional measure of insulation. A square of roofing is enough to cover 100 square feet of roof.

Heavyweight asphalt shingles are those weighing 300 pounds or more per square. They last considerably longer than shingles of lighter weight.

You did not say whether you intend to do the job yourself. Frankly, your questions indicate you may lack the experience and know-how to tackle the project. Roofing is highly specialized and can be dangerous if you don't know exactly what you are doing and lack the proper equipment.

To conceal unattractive features in a room, such as radiators, telephone cords, etc., the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association suggests that you paint them the same color as the wall.

Ohio To Mark Realtor Week

COLUMBUS — May 23-29 has been proclaimed "Realtor Week" in Ohio by Gov. James A. Rhodes.

The nationwide observance is sponsored in Ohio by the Ohio Association of Real Estate Boards and its 75 member boards with a combined membership of nearly 12,000.

In part the proclamation says, "Ownership of a home is a dream realized by nearly two-thirds of the families of this state and of our nation — a record equalled by few other countries in the world.

"Realtors of this state have aided materially in the attainment of this enviable record and, through their pledge as individuals to uphold the rigid Code of Ethics of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, have contributed toward public confidence in real estate ownership.

"Realtors have added to our state's prosperity through the use of their professional skills in locating, appraising and managing factories, stores and office buildings, thus providing the economy with a sound commercial and industrial base."

Ohio real estate boards will stage special events during the week, including special citations to news media, recognition of those who have made outstanding contributions to their communities, bus trips to new developments and historical spots for senior citizens and recognition of student leaders in schools.

Bulletin Offered For Protection Of Shade Trees

Pointing to the home building boom in the area, Oliver Johnson, Hancock County extension agent, has called for protection of shade trees during construction.

Some times, he pointed out, a tree is enough of an asset to property to plan the home around it. "This can be the difference between a house in a row or a home about which you can be proud to say, 'Here is where I live.' "

A bulletin, "Protecting Shade Trees During Home Construction," is available by calling the extension agent at the courthouse in New Cumberland.

To avoid splattering when using a paint roller, use slow, uniform strokes and moderate pressure.

Stay With Modern, Architect Says

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

If you are building a contemporay house, keep it all modern and it will be immeasurably enhanced, observed an architect, recently.

He was discussing the reason people refer to modern houses as "sticks" and "boxes." The feeling of coldness associated with a modern-design house that is furnished in traditional style, often is due to the contrast of the two, he pointed out.

This observation came to mind in touring the completely contemporary home of interior designer Albert Herbert in New York City. It was one of the homes opened to members of the American Institute of Interior Designers attending their annual meeting.

—:—

HERBERT had started with a brownstone house, one of the 20-foot-wide type, which he demolished, reconstructing it indoors and out. The facade is sleek contemporary. The house is an architectural gem indoors with its clean uncluttered look, open stairways, white plaster walls.

In his office section, there are white fabric floor-to-ceiling vertical louvered blinds, sleek white closets, a large red felt bulletin board on the wall, a chair of teakwood and twine, made in Pennsylvania.

In the studio area, Murphy beds fold into walls, there is a black leather Eames chair with ottoman, a desk-table that is merely a narrow black frame holding inch-thick plate glass. But what a conversation piece it was.

There were no table lamps in the living room. Instead there were lamps built into the 20-foot-high ceiling. Three tall, large candlesticks stood at the entrance to the room; candelabra are on tables. Walls are stark-white plaster with architectural relief — on either side of the flush fireplace there are two-foot gray fabric - covered floor-to-ceiling panels.

For twin seating, there are two brown armless leather-cushioned chairs, a long beige sofa, a black foalskin reclining chair, all set around a white rug.

—:—

SEPARATING living and dining areas is the staircase set within plaster walls area.

Floor-to-ceiling slim openings on either side gave a freightening concept, although airy, matched by an equally airy and dizzying opening — a metal railed aperture in the floor between living and dining area from which there was a sheer view several stories below.

Parquet floors in the dining room are stained a chestnut color. There is warmth too provided by the one rosewood wall there.

Another wall in the sleek room housed shelves of primitive art in a floor-to-ceiling niche. Mies Van der Roh chairs, 1925 vintage, provided elegant seating arrangements at the table.

The bathroom is all - white, punctuated with brilliant orange bath towels, a floor partially carpeted and partially tiled in charcoal, and a few interesting black masks on the wall.

A sliver of a boxcar style kitchen is truly a contemporary dream. The only traditional things are cooking utensils — flameware covered iron pots and pans.

Window shades are tan-and-white striped. A black shield protecting the ventilator is just a sleek black matte - finished panel with a small doll - like mask over it.

Rows of old Mexican tiles, black, brown and white used along the walls picked up the scheme used in black counter tops and copper - toned appliances. A round narrow basket provided wall art.

The open stair steps are stained a chestnut color.

Art throughout the house is contemporary — paintings, masks, primitive sculpture, great dramatic wall creations—one white. In one hallway is a tall table balancing a creation of metal sculpture on a pedestal.

The sculpture, strongly resembling a slice of a metal maze used for wine bottles, has some sections of it painted orange, some black.

Easy Repairs Are Offered For Windows

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY

A careful survey of new houses indicates that about half the windows open easily in 95 per cent of them. The other half can be opened only after a struggle or remain inoperative.

This is one of the major household irritations that we could do without. And the remedy is simple.

To begin with, all window assemblies arrive at the new building as complete units, consisting of the frame and the sash, all ready to install in the wall openings where windows are supposed to go.

As a rule, they arrive on the job without any protective paint and are exposed to rain and weather until they are set in the window-openings. As a result, the new house starts with window trouble.

The average window consists of an upper and lower sash. These slide in grooves in the window frame, and it is swelling before installation, plus careless painting, which causes window trouble.

In an effort to overcome these difficulties, the average home owner hammers, tugs, wrenches and struggles with the sash to either lower or raise it. In so doing, he breaks out the joints in the sash and leaves them open to attack by weather and the average household humidity.

All sash can be made to operate easily by wrapping a piece of sandpaper around a block of wood and sanding down the grooves in which the sash slides.

Actually, you only need about a sixteenth-of-an-inch of clearance. Then, when a lubricant is applied to the grooves, your sash will slide properly and you will not be wrecking the windows with daily abuse.

It has been estimated that only one hour of treatment will make any window operative and avoid expensive replacements later.

Seating Of Jury Due In Robbery Hearing

LISBON — A jury is expected to be seated Monday morning in Common Pleas Court to hear the robbery trial of Norman R. Buzzard, 25, of East Liverpool R.D. 1.

Buzzard was indicted by the April grand jury on charges of taking a watch, ring and money from Jack R. Bowersock.

Judge Joel H. Sharp will preside.

'Fiber' Fence Enters Scene

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

Manufacturers are constantly seeking new uses for their products.

At one time, writing a story about fences called only for a discussion of the various types of available lumber and the many possible designs. But over the years, we've told about fences made of plastic, hardboard, plywood, aluminum and many other materials which originally were used for other purposes.

Recently, we saw a fence made of mineral fiber, used so often as a siding for houses.

While this particular one was left in its natural whitish state, with no finish whatever, the mineral fiber panels, 4' by 8', are available with an acrylic plastic coating in a variety of textures and colors. One of its advantages is that it will not rot and is termite-proof.

To erect a privacy fence or a screen of this material, use wood 2 by 4s and 4 by 4s for the framing material; that is, the posts and the rails.

The posts, as with any regular fence, should be set in concrete for added strength. Wood which is in or touching the ground should be given a coat of preservative. Wood above the ground can also be treated this way or painted any desired color.

The mineral fiber panels can be used in the standard 4' by 8' size, cut into 4' by 4' sheets or sawed into strips 4' to 8' long of any desired width.

Although these panels can be cut with an ordinary saw, they can quickly dull the blade. It is best to use a saber or other type saw with an inexpensive blade, which can be thrown away. If extensive cutting is to be done, better use a tungsten carbide-tipped blade, which can handle tough material like this.

For both variety of design and greater structural strength, nail the panels on alternate sides of the framing.

Use a 1¼" rust - resistant nail with a small head. You'll have to give it a couple of solid taps to get it started, after which it will penetrate easily. Additional variety can be obtained by using both unfinished and prefinished panels.

Stay With Modern, Architect Says

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

If you are building a contemporay house, keep it all modern and it will be immeasurably enhanced, observed an architect, recently.

He was discussing the reason people refer to modern houses as "sticks" and "boxes." The feeling of coldness associated with a modern-design house that is furnished in traditional style, often is due to the contrast of the two, he pointed out.

This observation came to mind in touring the completely contemporary home of interior designer Albert Herbert in New York City. It was one of the homes opened to members of the American Institute of Interior Designers attending their annual meeting.

—:—

HERBERT had started with a brownstone house, one of the 20-foot-wide type, which he demolished, reconstructing it indoors and out. The facade is sleek contemporary. The house is an architectural gem indoors with its clean uncluttered look, open stairways, white plaster walls.

In his office section, there are white fabric floor-to-ceiling vertical louvered blinds, sleek white closets, a large red felt bulletin board on the wall, a chair of teakwood and twine, made in Pennsylvania.

In the studio area, Murphy beds fold into walls, there is a black leather Eames chair with ottoman, a desk-table that is merely a narrow black frame holding inch-thick plate glass. But what a conversation piece it was.

There were no table lamps in the living room. Instead there were lamps built into the 20-foot-high ceiling. Three tall, large candlesticks stood at the entrance to the room; candelabra are on tables. Walls are stark-white plaster with architectural relief — on either side of the flush fireplace there are two - foot gray fabric - covered floor-to-ceiling panels.

For twin seating, there are two brown armless leather-cushioned chairs, a long beige sofa, a black foalskin reclining chair, all set around a white rug.

—:—

SEPARATING living and dining areas is the staircase set within plaster walls area.

Floor-to-ceiling slim openings on either side gave a frightening concept, although airy, matched by an equally airy and dizzying opening — a metal railed aperture in the floor between living and dining area from which there was a sheer view several stories below.

Parquet floors in the dining room are stained a chestnut color. There is warmth too provided by the one rosewood wall there.

Another wall in the sleek room housed shelves of primitive art in a floor-to-ceiling niche. Mies Van der Roh chairs, 1925 vintage, provided elegant seating arrangements at the table.

The bathroom is all - white, punctuated with brilliant orange bath towels, a floor partially carpeted and partially tiled in charcoal, and a few interesting black masks on the wall.

A sliver of a boxcar style kitchen is truly a contemporary dream. The only traditional things are cooking utensils — flameware covered iron pots and pans.

Window shades are tan-and-white striped. A black shield protecting the ventilator is just a sleek black matte - finished panel with a small doll - like mask over it.

Rows of old Mexican tiles, black, brown and white used along the walls picked up the scheme used in black counter tops and copper - toned appliances. A round narrow basket provided wall art.

The open stair steps are stained a chestnut color.

Art throughout the house is contemporary — paintings, masks, primitive sculpture, great dramatic wall creations—one white. In one hallway is a tall table balancing a creation of metal sculpture on a pedestal.

The sculpture, strongly resembling a slice of a metal maze used for wine bottles, has some sections of it painted orange, some black.

Easy Repairs Are Offered For Windows

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY

A careful survey of new houses indicates that about half the windows open easily in 95 per cent of them. The other half can be opened only after a struggle or remain inoperative.

This is one of the major household irritations that we could do without. And the remedy is simple.

To begin with, all window assemblies arrive at the new building as complete units, consisting of the frame and the sash, all ready to install in the wall openings where windows are supposed to go.

As a rule, they arrive on the job without any protective paint and are exposed to rain and weather until they are set in the window-openings. As a result, the new house starts with window trouble.

The average window consists of an upper and lower sash. These slide in grooves in the window frame, and it is swelling before installation, plus careless painting, which causes window trouble.

In an effort to overcome these difficulties, the average home owner hammers, tugs, wrenches and struggles with the sash to either lower or raise it. In so doing, he breaks out the joints in the sash and leaves them open to attack by weather and the average household humidity.

All sash can be made to operate easily by wrapping a piece of sandpaper around a block of wood and sanding down the grooves in which the sash slides.

Actually, you only need about a sixteenth-of-an-inch of clearance. Then, when a lubricant is applied to the grooves, your sash will slide properly and you will not be wrecking the windows with daily abuse.

It has been estimated that only one hour of treatment will make any window operative and avoid expensive replacements later.

Seating Of Jury Due In Robbery Hearing

LISBON — A jury is expected to be seated Monday morning in Common Pleas Court to hear the robbery trial of Norman R. Buzzard, 25, of East Liverpool R.D. 1.

Buzzard was indicted by the April grand jury on charges of taking a watch, ring and money from Jack R. Bowersock.

Judge Joel H. Sharp will preside.

'Fiber' Fence Enters Scene

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

Manufacturers are constantly seeking new uses for their products.

At one time, writing a story about fences called only for a discussion of the various types of available lumber and the many possible designs. But over the years, we've told about fences made of plastic, hardboard, plywood, aluminum and many other materials which originally were used for other purposes.

Recently, we saw a fence made of mineral fiber, used so often as a siding for houses.

While this particular one was left in its natural whitish state, with no finish whatever, the mineral fiber panels, 4' by 8', are available with an acrylic plastic coating in a variety of textures and colors. One of its advantages is that it will not rot and is termite-proof.

To erect a privacy fence or a screen of this material, use wood 2 by 4s and 4 by 4s for the framing material; that is, the posts and the rails.

The posts, as with any regular fence, should be set in concrete for added strength. Wood which is in or touching the ground should be given a coat of preservative. Wood above the ground can also be treated this way or painted any desired color

The mineral fiber panels can be used in the standard 4' by 8' size, cut into 4' by 4' sheets or sawed into strips 4' to 8' long of any desired width.

Although these panels can be cut with an ordinary saw, they can quickly dull the blade. It is best to use a saber or other type saw with an inexpensive blade, which can be thrown away. If extensive cutting is to be done, better use a tungsten carbide-tipped blade, which can handle tough material like this.

For both variety of design and greater structural strength, nail the panels on alternate sides of the framing.

Use a 1¼" rust - resistant nail with a small head. You'll have to give it a couple of solid taps to get it started, after which it will penetrate easily. Additional variety can be obtained by using both unfinished and prefinished panels.

New Skipper Sees A's Win 2 Off Twins

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

If Haywood Sullivan can win a few more games, he might find himself riding around in a green and gold air-conditioned trailer with piped-in music for his listening pleasure.

The new manager of the Kansas City Athletics took a giant step toward taking over Charley the Mule's trailer as well as the animal's place in Charley Finley's heart by halting a seven-game losing streak Sunday with a doubleheader sweep over Minnesota 7-4 in 10 innings and 4-2.

Sullivan, a former catcher with Boston and Kansas City who had been managing at Vancouver, got the call from owner Finley during the weekend and replaced Mal McGaha. He became Finley's fifth manager in five years and the youngest in the majors at 34.

He went to work immediately and found a willing ally in Rene Lachemann, a former Dodger bat boy. Lachemann was sent up as a pinch hitter in the opener and produced the tying run with a ninth-inning single, then was inserted into the line-up in the nightcap and responded with two singles and a homer.

A couple of more moves like that and the Mule may get his eviction papers.

Meanwhile, the American League-leading Chicago White Sox swept a doubleheader from the Los Angeles Angels 6-2 and 5-4, Boston downed Detroit 5-0 and 4-3, Washington edged Cleveland 8-7 in 11 innings before the Indians won 7-3 and Baltimore defeated the New York Yankees 7-5 in the only single game scheduled.

After Lachemann drove in the tying run in the opener for the A's, Ed Charles won it in the 10th with a three-run homer following singles by John Blanchard and Dick Green. Green hit two homers and Gentile one for Kansas City while Jimmie Hall and Tony Oliva connected for the Twins.

Pete Ward and Moose Skowron supplied the major fireworks for the White Sox in the opener, Ward doubling home two runs in the first inning and Skowron slapping a two-run single in the third before hitting a homer in the seventh.

In the nightcap, Bobby Knoop's second error, in the seventh inning, paved the way for three unearned runs and the White Sox' seventh consecutive victory. Danny Cater scored when second - baseman Knoop bobbled Skowron's grounder and Ron Hansen capped the uprising with a two-run triple.

Earl Wilson got the job done for the Red Sox in the opener by limiting the Tigers to four hits while Lee Thomas drove in three runs with a single and a double.

Carl Yastrzemski and Tony Conigliaro powered the Red Sox to their second - game victory with consecutive third - inning homers that built their lead to 4-0. It was Yastrezemski's seventh and Conigliaro's eighth.

Ken McMullen doubled and scored on Jim King's single to give the Senators a 7-7 tie in the ninth inning, then won it in the 11th with a homer off Dick Donovan.

The Indians came back to grab the second game with Fred Whitfield hitting a pinch-hit grand-slam homer and Joe Azcue connecting for a two-run shot. Luis Tiant got the victory with a six-hitter.

Luis Aparicio's two-run homer in the sixth inning capped a four-homer salvo that powered the Orioles over the Yankees. Aparicio's homer, only his second, put Baltimore ahead 6-5. Curt Blefary, Norm Siebern and pitcher Jim Palmer also homered.

Mays Belts No. 13

Never On Sunday For Bucs; Mets Slip Reds Double Dose

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Give Willie Mays five feet, and he'll take 90.

Mays, on another one of his early season streaks, scooted home on a not-too-wild pitch with the winning run in San Francisco's 4-3 victory over Houston in the second game of a doubleheader Sunday.

Mays also starred in the opener, cracking his 13th home run as the Giants won 10-5.

The 34-year-old Giant whiz reached first base in the sixth inning of the nightcap when first-baseman Jim Beachamp dropped Joe Morgan's throw. He stole second, then moved to third on a ground out.

With Tom Haller at bat, Houston's Jim Owens uncorked a pitch that wound up five feet in front of the plate. Mays, spotting the ball 85 feet away, won the race home—and the game.

That dashing play climaxed a prolific day for Mays, who rapped five hits in seven at-bats, scored four runs and drove in two.

The performance pushed the center fielder's major league-leading average to .408 and continued to duplicate his streak early last year.

In other National League games, Milwaukee trimmed Philadelphia 8-6 in 10 innings, New York swept Cincinnati 6-2 and 8-5, St. Louis rolled over Pittsburgh 6-3 and 5-1 and Los Angeles edged Chicago 3-2 after losing 5-3 in 10 innings.

Mays doubled in one run and scored another in the fourth inning of the second game.

The Astros made it close on Jim Wynn's seventh-inning homer and Joe Morgan's two-run single in the eighth.

Juan Marichal brought his record to 6-3 in the opener behind homers by Willie McCovey, Mays, Jim Hart and Haller. Houston's Dave Giusti was battered for seven singles in 1 1-3 innings as he lost his first game after winning six.

Milwaukee rallied for three runs in the 10th inning, the first two on Gene Oliver's bases-loaded double, for its triumph over the Phillies. Bobby Wine helped the Braves by throwing high on Ed Mathews' leadoff grounder. It was Philadelphia's 42nd error in 29 games.

The Mets moved 4½ games away from last-place Pittsburgh by defeating the Reds twice. Jack Fisher won his third straight game in the opener behind home runs by Johnny Lewis, Charlie Smith and Roy McMillan.

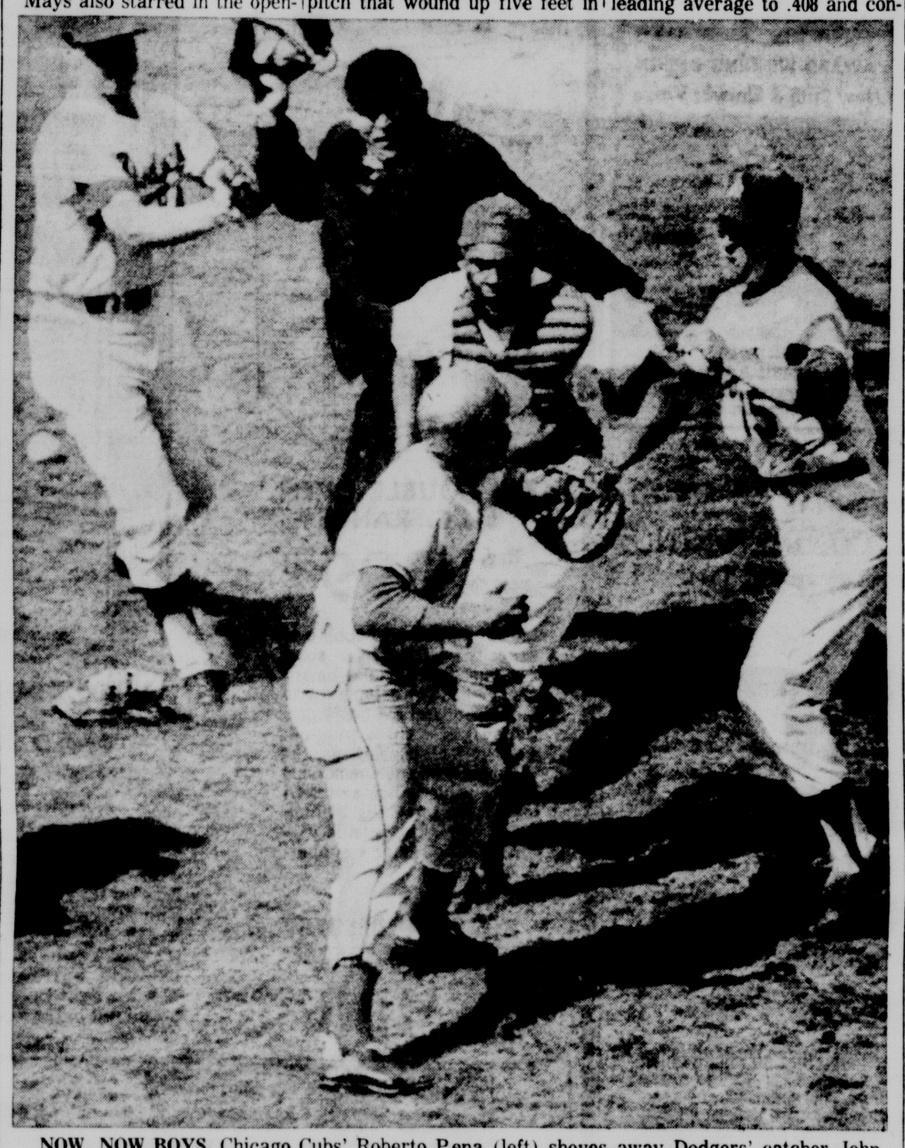

Smith and Ron Swoboda connected in the second game, helping Warren Spahn even his record at 3.3.

St. Louis' Bob Gibson became the winningest pitcher in the majors, scattering 10 hits for his seventh victory against no defeats. Gibson also homered in the ninth inning of the first game.

The Pirates dropped their 20th game in the last 24 in the second game as Ray Washburn and Bob Purkey combined for a six-hitter. The Cardinals put the game away with three runs in the eighth, Ken Boyer and Bill White each driving in one.

Billy Williams snapped a 1-1 tie with a run-scoring single in the 10th inning, and the Cubs scored three more times, offsetting Wes Parker's two-run double in the Dodgers' half of the inning. Ron Santo, Ernie Banks and Dick Bertell singled in the other Cub runs in the 10th.

Parker won the nightcap for Los Angeles, driving in pitcher Don Drysdale with a ninth-inning single. Drysdale, who doubled with two out in the inning, had a three-hitter until the top of the ninth when Chicago tied it 2-2 on Don Landrum's single and Williams' bad-hop double.

NOW, NOW BOYS. Chicago Cubs' Roberto Pena (left) shoves away Dodgers' catcher John Roseboro as Roseboro attempts to step between Pena and Dodger relief pitcher Bob Miller (15) in the tenth inning of the first game Sunday at Los Angeles. The fracas started after Pena was hit by a pitched ball. The umpire is Al Forman. (UPI Telephoto)

High School Lad Cracks Barrier

Ryun Runs Mile In 3:58.3

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Olympian Jim Ryun of Wichita East High School attributes his amazing 3:58.3 mile — first sub four-minute mile ever run in high school competition — to his extra work in the sprints.

"In any race a mile or less it's a matter of speed," said the 18-year-old, dark-haired lad. "I didn't start bringing my mile times down until I started working harder on the sprints.

"This time, I knew it was my last high school race and I wanted to make it good."

That amounts to a major speech for the modest Ryun. He is looking forward to four big West Coast meets, starting with the Modesto, Calif., Relays May 28.

But he won't speculate on his chances against great veteran milers such as Dyrol Burleson, Jim Grelle, Tom O'Hara and Peter Snell of New Zealand, the world record holder at 3:54.1.

Ryun's 3:58.3 at the Kansas State meet Saturday is a tremendous accomplishment because he did it with no one pressing him the last half mile. His coach, J. D. Edmiston, timed his last quarter in 55.7 seconds. The crowd of 7,000 urged him on all the way.

Ryun's time is better than the NCAA meet record of 3:59.8 by Burleson and compares to the American record of 3:55.5 by Jim Beatty, and the collegiate mark of 3:56.9 by O'Hara.

Ring Places 2nd For Bears In State Meet

Oak Glen's distance star Jack Ring placed second in the 880-yard run to give the Golden Bears four points in the West Virginia Class AAA track and field finals Saturday at Charleston.

Ring ran second behind Smith of Triadelphia who was clocked in 2:00.4.

Oak Glen's 880 and mile relay teams which qualified for the finals finished unplaced.

The state crown was won by Parkersburg with 49 points while Charleston finished second scoring 39 points.

Pilgrim Finishes 4th In District Mile Run

East Liverpool's distance ace Jon Pilgrim failed to qualify for the regional track and field meet when he placed fourth in the mile and sixth in the half mile at the District meet Saturday at Uhrichsville.

The top three in each event qualified for the regionals.

The winning time in the mile was 4:29.9 while Pilgrim was clocked in 4:37.7.

Steubenville won team honors in the meet.

Lucky Is Out For 2 Months With Injury

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP) — Injuries, which have plagued toroughbred racing's 3-year-old division all year, struck again in the Preakness as Tom Rolfe won the $180,600 race Saturday with a neck decision over Dapper Dan.

Lucky Debonair, a fading seventh in the 1 3-16-mile race after winning the Kentucky Derby, and Native Charger, fourth in the Kentucky and Preakness, went on the hospital list for indefinite periods with leg injuries.

And even Tom Rolfe didn't escape unscratched as he survived a claim of foul while throwing back Dapper Dan's bid in the duel between two sons of the unbeaten Italian sire — Ribot.

Tom Rolfe, owned by Raymond Guest, the U.S. ambassador to Ireland, threw his left front shoe and returned to the winner's circle with his front heels run down and some hair brushed off the ankle.

Trainer Frank Whiteley said Sunday there was not much soreness in the heel. He will point Tom Rolfe for the 1½-mile Belmont stakes June 5, in which he will again hook up with the stretch - running Dapper Dan from Ogden Phipps' stable. He will be kept in training at Delaware Park.

Lucky Debonair, never farther back than fourth as Flag Raiser led the field of nine through a swift six furlongs and a 1:37 mile, suffered bucked shins in his two front legs, with the worse soreness in the left one.

Trainer Frank Catrone said Lucky Debonair would be out of action for at least two months.

Native Charger, winner of the Flamingo and Florida Derby for 83-year-old Albert Warner, bowed a tendon in his right foreleg. Trainer Ray Metcalf was not available as the horse vanned to Garden State Park in New Jersey.

With Hail to All, third in the Preakness, scheduled to start in the $100,000-added Jersey Derby, the Belmont stakes could well develop into a two-horse race.

After Dapper Dan's stretch runs just missed in both the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, there are many who believe the longer distance of the Belmont will be down his alley.

Chip Of 90 Feet Gives Mayer Win

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Dick Mayer, who dropped out of sight just months after he became king of golf in 1957, will tell you that it's sometimes a little heartbreaking for a former champion to attempt a comeback.

But the 42-year-old Mayer, who came from the same era of golf that produced such greats as Ben Hogan and Byron Nelson, struck a blow for old age and sentiment Sunday when he chipped in from at least 90 feet out on the 18th hole to win the $100,000 New Orleans Open. He shot a 68 in the final round for a 273 total.

Bruce Devlin and Billy Martindale finished in a tie for second with 274s and pocketed $9,400 each. Both finished with 70s.

Jack Nicklaus, the favorite here, finished Sunday's round with a 69 for a 72-hole total of 275. This left him tied with Jack Cupit and George Knudson for fourth place, which was worth $4,500 to each. Arnold Palmer was well down the list, with a 284 total worth $258.

Mayer, a native of New England who now makes his home at Palm Desert, Calif., was at his prime in 1957. He won the U.S. Open, the $100,000 World Championship of Golf, was named Golfer of the Year and led the nation's money winners with $65,835.

Then, beset by personal problems, Mayer made the short trip to oblivion. By 1960 his name was forgotten.

Mayer played a tournament now and then just to maintain contact with the game, but made his living as a stockbroker, selling insurance, working at his father's automobile agency and ranching.

"I just don't know whether I wanted to go in in 1957," he said. "I had lost all my confidence and really didn't think I wanted to play. I guess you can just say I gave up."

New Skipper Sees A's Win 2 Off Twins

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

If Haywood Sullivan can win a few more games, he might find himself riding around in a green and gold air-conditioned trailer with piped-in music for his listening pleasure.

The new manager of the Kansas City Athletics took a giant step toward taking over Charley the Mule's trailer as well as the animal's place in Charley Finley's heart by halting a seven-game losing streak Sunday with a doubleheader sweep over Minnesota 7-4 in 10 innings and 4-2.

Sullivan, a former catcher with Boston and Kansas City who had been managing at Vancouver, got the call from owner Finley during the weekend and replaced Mal McGaha. He became Finley's fifth manager in five years and the youngest in the majors at 34.

He went to work immediately and found a willing ally in Rene Lachemann, a former Dodger bat boy. Lachemann was sent up as a pinch hitter in the opener and produced the tying run with a ninth-inning single, then was inserted into the line-up in the nightcap and responded with two singles and a homer.

A couple of more moves like that and the Mule may get his eviction papers.

Meanwhile, the American League-leading Chicago White Sox swept a doubleheader from the Los Angeles Angels 6-2 and 5-4, Boston downed Detroit 5-0 and 4-3, Washington edged Cleveland 8-7 in 11 innings before the Indians won 7-3 and Baltimore defeated the New York Yankees 7-5 in the only single game scheduled.

After Lachemann drove in the tying run in the opener for the A's, Ed Charles won it in the 10th with a three-run homer following singles by John Blanchard and Dick Green. Green hit two homers and Gentile one for Kansas City while Jimmie Hall and Tony Oliva connected for the Twins.

Pete Ward and Moose Skowron supplied the major fireworks for the White Sox in the opener, Ward doubling home two runs in the first inning and Skowron slapping a two-run single in the third before hitting a homer in the seventh.

In the nightcap, Bobby Knoop's second error, in the seventh inning, paved the way for three unearned runs and the White Sox' seventh consecutive victory. Danny Cater scored when second - baseman Knoop bobbled Skowron's grounder and Ron Hansen capped the uprising with a two-run triple.

Earl Wilson got the job done for the Red Sox in the opener by limiting the Tigers to four hits while Lee Thomas drove in three runs with a single and a double.

Carl Yastrzemski and Tony Conigliaro powered the Red Sox to their second - game victory with consecutive third - inning homers that built their lead to 4-0. It was Yastrezemski's seventh and Conigliaro's eighth.

Ken McMullen doubled and scored on Jim King's single to give the Senators a 7-7 tie in the ninth inning, then won it in the 11th with a homer off Dick Donovan.

The Indians came back to grab the second game with Fred Whitfield hitting a pinch-hit grand-slam homer and Joe Azcue connecting for a two-run shot. Luis Tiant got the victory with a six-hitter.

Luis Aparicio's two-run homer in the sixth inning capped a four-homer salvo that powered the Orioles over the Yankees. Aparicio's homer, only his second, put Baltimore ahead 6-5. Curt Blefary, Norm Siebern and pitcher Jim Palmer also homered.

Mays Belts No. 13

Never On Sunday For Bucs; Mets Slip Reds Double Dose

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Give Willie Mays five feet, and he'll take 90.

Mays, on another one of his early season streaks, scooted home on a not-too-wild pitch with the winning run in San Francisco's 4-3 victory over Houston in the second game of a doubleheader Sunday.

Mays also starred in the opener, cracking his 13th home run as the Giants won 10-5.

The 34-year-old Giant whiz reached first base in the sixth inning of the nightcap when first-baseman Jim Beachamp dropped Joe Morgan's throw. He stole second, then moved to third on a ground out.

With Tom Haller at bat, Houston's Jim Owens uncorked a pitch that wound up five feet in front of the plate. Mays, spotting the ball 85 feet away, won the race home—and the game.

That dashing play climaxed a prolific day for Mays, who rapped five hits in seven at-bats, scored four runs and drove in two.

The performance pushed the center fielder's major league-leading average to .408 and continued to duplicate his streak early last year.

In other National League games, Milwaukee trimmed Philadelphia 8-6 in 10 innings, New York swept Cincinnati 6-2 and 8-5, St. Louis rolled over Pittsburgh 6-3 and 5-1 and Los Angeles edged Chicago 3-2 after losing 5-3 in 10 innings.

Mays doubled in one run and scored another in the fourth inning of the second game.

The Astros made it close on Jim Wynn's seventh-inning homer and Joe Morgan's two-run single in the eighth.

Juan Marichal brought his record to 6-3 in the opener behind homers by Willie McCovey, Mays, Jim Hart and Haller. Houston's Dave Giusti was battered for seven singles in 1 1-3 innings as he lost his first game after winning six.

Milwaukee rallied for three runs in the 10th inning, the first two on Gene Oliver's bases-loaded double, for its triumph over the Phillies. Bobby Wine helped the Braves by throwing high on Ed Mathews' leadoff grounder. It was Philadelphia's 42nd error in 29 games.

The Mets moved 4½ games away from last-place Pittsburgh by defeating the Reds twice. Jack Fisher won his third straight game in the opener behind home runs by Johnny Lewis, Charlie Smith and Roy McMillan.

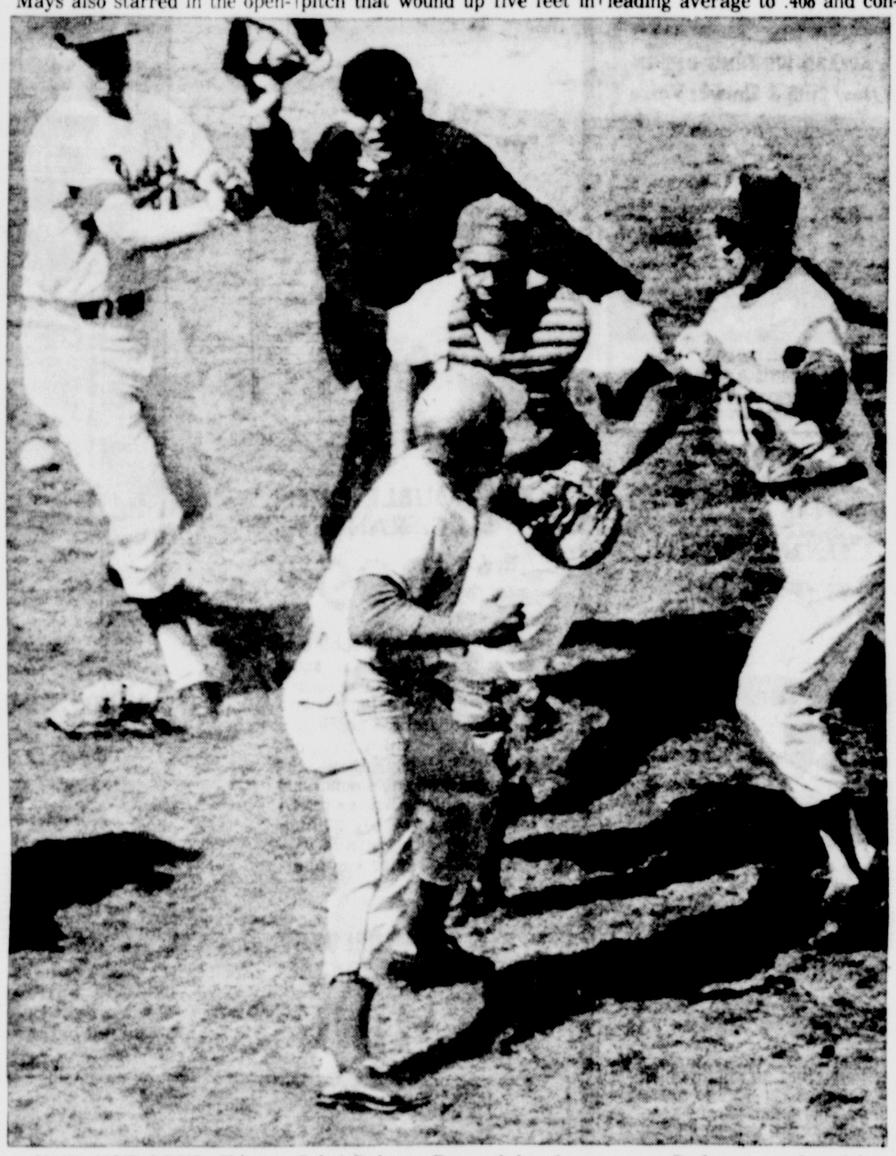

Smith and Ron Swoboda connected in the second game, helping Warren Spahn even his record at 3.3.

St. Louis' Bob Gibson became the winningest pitcher in the majors, scattering 10 hits for his seventh victory against no defeats. Gibson also homered in the ninth inning of the first game.

The Pirates dropped their 20th game in the last 24 in the second game as Ray Washburn and Bob Purkey combined for a six-hitter. The Cardinals put the game away with three runs in the eighth, Ken Boyer and Bill White each driving in one.

Billy Williams snapped a 1-1 tie with a run-scoring single in the 10th inning, and the Cubs scored three more times, offsetting Wes Parker's two-run double in the Dodgers' half of the inning. Ron Santo, Ernie Banks and Dick Bertell singled in the other Cub runs in the 10th.

Parker won the nightcap for Los Angeles, driving in pitcher Don Drysdale with a ninth-inning single. Drysdale, who doubled with two out in the inning, had a three-hitter until the top of the ninth when Chicago tied it 2-2 on Don Landrum's single and Williams' bad-hop double.

NOW, NOW BOYS. Chicago Cubs' Roberto Pena (left) shoves away Dodgers' catcher John Roseboro as Roseboro attempts to step between Pena and Dodger relief pitcher Bob Miller (15) in the tenth inning of the first game Sunday at Los Angeles. The fracas started after Pena was hit by a pitched ball. The umpire is Al Forman. (UPI Telephoto)

High School Lad Cracks Barrier

Ryun Runs Mile In 3:58.3

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Olympian Jim Ryun of Wichita East High School attributes his amazing 3:58.3 mile — first sub four-minute mile ever run in high school competition — to his extra work in the sprints.

"In any race a mile or less it's a matter of speed," said the 18-year-old, dark-haired lad. "I didn't start bringing my mile times down until I started working harder on the sprints.

"This time, I knew it was my last high school race and I wanted to make it good."

That amounts to a major speech for the modest Ryun. He is looking forward to four big West Coast meets, starting with the Modesto, Calif., Relays May 28.

But he won't speculate on his chances against great veteran milers such as Dyrol Burleson, Jim Grelle, Tom O'Hara and Peter Snell of New Zealand, the world record holder at 3:54.1.

Ryun's 3:58.3 at the Kansas State meet Saturday is a tremendous accomplishment because he did it with no one pressing him the last half mile. His coach, J. D. Edmiston, timed his last quarter in 55.7 seconds. The crowd of 7,000 urged him on all the way.

Ryun's time is better than the NCAA meet record of 3:59.8 by Burleson and compares to the American record of 3:55.5 by Jim Beatty, and the collegiate mark of 3:56.9 by O'Hara.

Ring Places 2nd For Bears In State Meet

Oak Glen's distance star Jack Ring placed second in the 880-yard run to give the Golden Bears four points in the West Virginia Class AAA track and field finals Saturday at Charleston.

Ring ran second behind Smith of Triadelphia who was clocked in 2:00.4.

Oak Glen's 880 and mile relay teams which qualified for the finals finished unplaced.

The state crown was won by Parkersburg with 49 points while Charleston finished second scoring 39 points.

Pilgrim Finishes 4th In District Mile Run

East Liverpool's distance ace Jon Pilgrim failed to qualify for the regional track and field meet when he placed fourth in the mile and sixth in the half mile at the District meet Saturday at Uhrichsville.

The top three in each event qualified for the regionals.

The winning time in the mile was 4:29.9 while Pilgrim was clocked in 4:37.7.

Steubenville won team honors in the meet.

Lucky Is Out For 2 Months With Injury

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP) — Injuries, which have plagued toroughbred racing's 3-year-old division all year, struck again in the Preakness as Tom Rolfe won the $180,600 race Saturday with a neck decision over Dapper Dan.

Lucky Debonair, a fading seventh in the 1 3-16-mile race after winning the Kentucky Derby, and Native Charger, fourth in the Kentucky and Preakness, went on the hospital list for indefinite periods with leg injuries.

And even Tom Rolfe didn't escape unscratched as he survived a claim of foul while throwing back Dapper Dan's bid in the duel between two sons of the unbeaten Italian sire — Ribot.

Tom Rolfe, owned by Raymond Guest, the U.S. ambassador to Ireland, threw his left front shoe and returned to the winner's circle with his front heels run down and some hair brushed off the ankle.

Trainer Frank Whiteley said Sunday there was not much soreness in the heel. He will point Tom Rolfe for the 1½-mile Belmont stakes June 5, in which he will again hook up with the stretch - running Dapper Dan from Ogden Phipps' stable. He will be kept in training at Delaware Park.

Lucky Debonair, never farther back than fourth as Flag Raiser led the field of nine through a swift six furlongs and a 1:37 mile, suffered bucked shins in his two front legs, with the worse soreness in the left one.

Trainer Frank Catrone said Lucky Debonair would be out of action for at least two months.

Native Charger, winner of the Flamingo and Florida Derby for 83-year-old Albert Warner, bowed a tendon in his right foreleg. Trainer Ray Metcalf was not available as the horse vanned to Garden State Park in New Jersey.

With Hail to All, third in the Preakness, scheduled to start in the $100,000-added Jersey Derby, the Belmont stakes could well develop into a two-horse race.

After Dapper Dan's stretch runs just missed in both the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, there are many who believe the longer distance of the Belmont will be down his alley.

Chip Of 90 Feet Gives Mayer Win

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Dick Mayer, who dropped out of sight just months after he became king of golf in 1957, will tell you that it's sometimes a little heartbreaking for a former champion to attempt a comeback.

But the 42-year-old Mayer, who came from the same era of golf that produced such greats as Ben Hogan and Byron Nelson, struck a blow for old age and sentiment Sunday when he chipped in from at least 90 feet out on the 18th hole to win the $100,000 New Orleans Open. He shot a 68 in the final round for a 273 total.

Bruce Devlin and Billy Martindale finished in a tie for second with 274s and pockeetd $9,400 each. Both finished with 70s.

Jack Nicklaus, the favorite here, finished Sunday's round with a 69 for a 72-hole total of 275. This left him tied with Jack Cupit and George Knudson for fourth place, which was worth $4,500 to each. Arnold Palmer was well down the list, with a 284 total worth $258.

Mayer, a native of New England who now makes his home at Palm Desert, Calif., was at his prime in 1957. He won the U.S. Open, the $100,000 World Championship of Golf, was named Golfer of the Year and led the nation's money winners with $65,835.

Then, beset by personal problems, Mayer made the short trip to oblivion. By 1960 his name was forgotten.

Mayer played a tournament now and then just to maintain contact with the game, but made his living as a stockbroker, selling insurance, working at his father's automobile agency and ranching.

"I just don't know whether I wanted to go in in 1957," he said. "I had lost all my confidence and really didn't think I wanted to play. I guess you can just say I gave up."

Foyt No. 1 Qualifier In First Time Trials

By RON GILBERT
Associated Press Sports Writer

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A. J. Foyt owns all the records for the 500-mile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway from the 150-mile point to the finish. And he'll be in an ideal spot May 31 to pick up the other marks.

Foyt, 30, four-time national driving champion from Houston, Tex., won the 500 last year for the second time and set records all the way after taking charge at 150 miles. But the marks for the qualifications and the early part of the race eluded him.

He took care of qualifications Saturday by roaring four times around the 2½-mile track at an average of 161.233 miles per hour and hitting a hot lap at 161.958. He drove the No. 1 Sheraton-Thompson rear-engine Lotus-Ford.

As the fastest qualifier on the first trial day, Foyt will start the race in the pole position — inside spot in the front three-car row of the 33-car field.

Nineteen cars qualified Saturday, at speeds from Foyt's record to 153.407 by Norm Hall of Hollywood. Calif. Two more qualified Sunday, filling a tentative line-up of seven rows for the race.

Twelve places at the rear of the field remain to be filled next weekend. After 12 cars have qualified, a car still may make the field with a higher speed than one or more of the earlier qulifiers. The slowest car then will be eliminated.

Only the 33 fastest cars will start the race.

Jim Clark, 29 former world champion of Duns, Scotland, ran four laps at 160.729 and one at 160.973.

Foyt, Clark and Dan Gurney of Costa Mesa, Calif., all driving Lotus-Fords, will start in the front row.

Central Sweeps 2 Games From Beaver Local Nine

Sectional champion Steubenville Central handed Beaver Local a double setback by taking both ends of a twin bill, 2-1 and 7-0, Saturday at Steubenville.

Central eked out a 2-1 victory in the first game when Beaver Local left a host of runners stranded. On three different occasions in the opener, the Beavers had the bases loaded with no outs and only managed to score one run.

Frank Quetot was the loser as he allowed six hits. Central scored single runs in the fourth and fifth frames. Dorczyk was the winner allowing Beaver Local seven safeties. Jeff Hall collected two for the Beavers.

Central cashed in for four runs in the third and three in the sixth to smother the Beavers in the second game with Mieczkowski the winning hurler.

Dennis Horger was charged with the loss before he was relieved by Hall in the sixth.

Steubenville pounded out 10 hits while the Beavers only nicked Mieczkowski for five scattered singles.

Foyt No. 1 Qualifier In First Time Trials

By RON GILBERT
Associated Press Sports Writer

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A. J. Foyt owns all the records for the 500-mile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway from the 150-mile point to the finish. And he'll be in an ideal spot May 31 to pick up the other marks.

Foyt, 30, four-time national driving champion from Houston, Tex., won the 500 last year for the second time and set records all the way after taking charge at 150 miles. But the marks for the qualifications and the early part of the race eluded him.

He took care of qualifications Saturday by roaring four times around the 2½-mile track at an average of 161.233 miles per hour and hitting a hot lap at 161.958. He drove the No. 1 Sheraton-Thompson rear-engine Lotus-Ford.

As the fastest qualifier on the first trial day, Foyt will start the race in the pole position — inside spot in the front three-car row of the 33-car field.

Nineteen cars qualified Saturday, at speeds from Foyt's record to 153.407 by Norm Hall of Hollywood, Calif. Two more qualified Sunday, filling a tentative line-up of seven rows for the race.

Twelve places at the rear of the field remain to be filled next weekend. After 12 cars have qualified, a car still may make the field with a higher speed than one or more of the earlier qulifiers. The slowest car then will be eliminated.

Only the 33 fastest cars will start the race.

Jim Clark, 29 former world champion of Duns, Scotland, ran four laps at 160.729 and one at 160.973.

Foyt, Clark and Dan Gurney of Costa Mesa, Calif., all driving Lotus-Fords, will start in the front row.

Central Sweeps 2 Games From Beaver Local Nine

Sectional champion Steubenville Central handed Beaver Local a double setback by taking both ends of a twin bill, 2-1 and 7-0, Saturday at Steubenville.

Central eked out a 2-1 victory in the first game when Beaver Local left a host of runners stranded. On three different occasions in the opener, the Beavers had the bases loaded with no outs and only managed to score one run.

Frank Quetot was the loser as he allowed six hits. Central scored single runs in the fourth and fifth frames. Dorczyk was the winner allowing Beaver Local seven safeties. Jeff Hall collected two for the Beavers.

Central cashed in for four runs in the third and three in the sixth to smother the Beavers in the second game with Mieczkowski the winning hurler.

Dennis Horger was charged with the loss before he was relieved by Hall in the sixth.

Steubenville pounded out 10 hits while the Beavers only nicked Mieczkowski for five scattered singles.

Beaver Local was scheduled to meet East Liverpool today at 4:30 at Colt Field.

QUICK, convenient, economical — that describes Review Want Ads.

If one of your neighbors bought a big, classy, new Dodge Polara, don't be too impressed.

It cost a lot less than you would guess!

The price surprise of 1965-DODGE POLARA See it now at your Dodge Boys showroom

With all due apologies to any of our customers who bought a Polara as a status symbol, the Dodge Boys don't want to deflate your ego, but they do want to get the facts straight. The Polara looks high class and performs high class, but it's priced right with Galaxie and Impala. Sure, you get a bigger, heavier car with more horsepower, but that's no reason to act like there's a lot of money in the family. Buy a Polara and impress people with your common sense.

You'll also be pleasantly surprised at the low price of the Dart and Coronet.

QUICK, convenient, economical — that describes Review Want Ads.

If one of your neighbors bought a big, classy, new Dodge Polara, don't be too impressed.

It cost a lot less than you would guess!

The price surprise of 1965-DODGE POLARA See it now at your Dodge Boys showroom

With all due apologies to any of our customers who bought a Polara as a status symbol, the Dodge Boys don't want to deflate your ego, but they do want to get the facts straight. The Polara looks high class and performs high class, but it's priced right with Galaxie and Impala. Sure, you get a bigger, heavier car with more horsepower, but that's no reason to act like there's a lot of money in the family. Buy a Polara and impress people with your common sense.

You'll also be pleasantly surprised at the low price of the Dart and Coronet.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How should woolen materials be pressed?

A.—Press on the wrong side. Use a damp cloth between the iron and the material. Use a moderately hot iron and apply until the cloth is dry.

Q.—How can I make a "dustless" dustcloth?

A.—Dip clean dustcloths into a mixture of two tablespoons of linseed oil or vegetable oil and one pint of gasoline or benzine. Do this outdoors, and hang them in the shade to dry before using.

Junior Editors Quiz on DINOSAURS

QUESTION: What did the first dinosaurs look like?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Scientists divide past time into various ages and periods. In the times of the Permian and Triassic Periods, from 230 to 200 million years ago, the swamps and shallow seas which had covered much of North America began to drain off, allowing more dry land to appear. According to scientists, some of the swamp animals, the amphibians, turned into reptiles, which were more capable of getting around on dry land. Some of these were plant eaters, others flesh eaters. During the Permian, the reptiles grew larger, many with weird shapes, such as the Phytosaur (in bottom of main picture) with a sharp pair of horns to suggest to predators that he would be a most uncomfortable morsel to swallow. Certain of these reptiles developed strong hind legs on which they could walk and run with a long tail to balance the weight in front. The front legs, no longer needed, shriveled down in size. Being much swifter than others, these reptiles were able to catch and eat many animals. They rapidly grew larger, developing, during the Juraissic Period, into the gigantic dinosaurs so familiar to us today. One of these first Triassic dinosaurs was Podokesaurus, the swift-looking reptile in the center of the main picture.

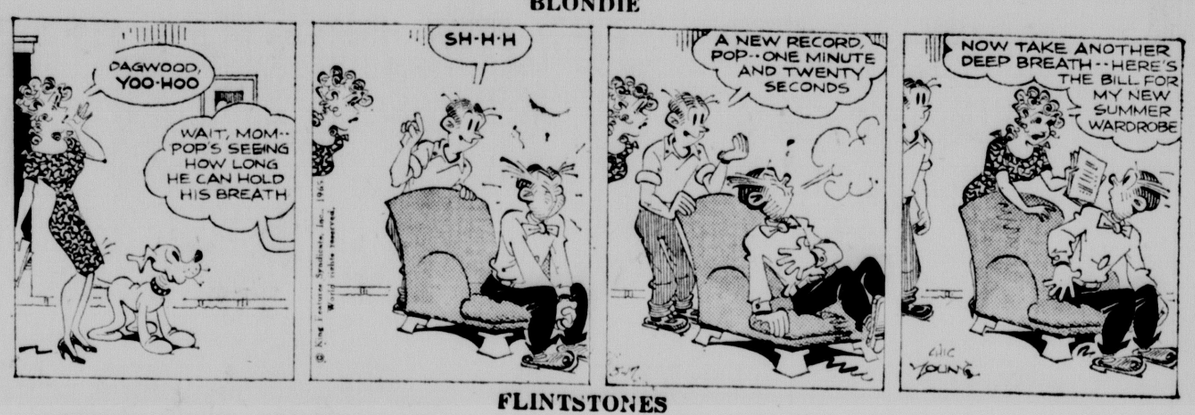

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: The lightly built Podogesauras was about four feet long. You can get a better idea of him by coloring him in shades of green and brown. The big dinosaur in upper right is Brachiosaurus. He could look over a modern three-story building.
